Education projects outlined

By WALTER F. STRANGE
 Press-Record Staff Writer
 Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison challenged members of the City Council Tuesday night to a new effort to improve conditions of the community.

He urged the aldermen during a regular council meeting to appoint committees in their wards to develop a plan of action.

"Ask the committee members to make suggestions and recommendations on how to improve their wards," the mayor suggested. "We must upgrade our homes if we are to keep people here," he said.

"These appointed committees could meet the people in their neighborhood who are a little careless in letting their homes deteriorate, and find out why."

Five candidates for three school board posts in Granite City School District 9 filed nominating petitions Wednesday as the filing period for the April 13 school elections opened in the Granite City area.

Among the candidates are Dr. Felicia D. Koch, 2641 Edison Ave., a local physician and surgeon.

Others who filed included the three incumbent board members whose terms are to expire this year—Harold W. Davis, 2230 Shirlene Drive; George E. Moore Sr., 1929 St. Clair Ave.; and Donald W. Stucke, 1613 Clark Ave.

The fifth candidate filing Wednesday in Granite City was C. Mike Michaeloff, 1206 W. Ponton Road.

Three candidates filed in Venice School District 3 where three board members also are to be elected this year. They included incumbents Elmer A. Taylor, 632 Broadway, Venice, and Jack Tolliver, 1250 Klein St., Venice. Also filing was William J. "Bill" Fecht, 1012 Third St., Venice.

Leo Davinroy, now board president whose term expires this year, said he will not be a candidate for reelection.

know we can get organizations to assist us and handle some paint or other items needed if people are unable to improve their property because of financial problems.

"It takes motivation and leadership to get the job done and I think we have dedicated people in our community who will assist us in achieving our goals," the mayor added.

These committees will function only with the type of leadership you give them. You and your committee members should check your wards for appearance and see what you feel can be done to make our community more attractive.

Mayor Sasyk outlined four current improvement projects now under way that he said will be accomplished this year without tax increases: black topping of city streets, replacing present street lights at intersections with improved lighting, burglar alarm system for stores, schools and churches in the city and new recreation areas including lighted tennis courts, and skating courts at the Madison Recreation Center, Madison Junior High school and the West Madison area.

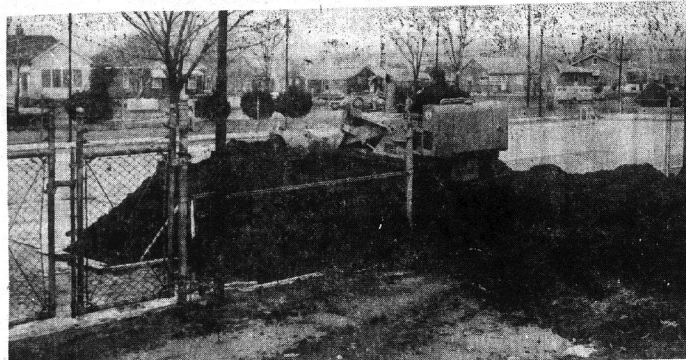

The council gave Superintendent of Streets Elmer Smith permission to advertise for bids for the summer bluminoous paving program.

Councilmen authorized purchase of a used paver for $8,000, and seeking bids for two trucks. Mayor Sasyk said the city hopes to get the majority of its work, if not all of it, done before the end of the fiscal year.

"Work already has begun this week on filling in the old swimming pool located on Seventh street," Sasyk said. "We then will put in four lighted tennis courts that also will be fenced. Located near the tennis courts we will make skating courts."

The Mayor explained what skating is similar to ice skating but is done on blacktop, and you can play games such as hockey," he said. He passed around a set of Skating skates which are similar to ice skates, but instead of a blade has three rollers in a straight line down the center. Sasyk told the council the sport is very popular in Europe and that the Pepsi Cola Co. has the franchise. He said he talked to company of-

The surface above the former pool will be used for lighted tennis courts and skating courts; skating is a form of ice hockey played on shoes equipped with "runners" composed of rollers. The City of Madison also is announcing plans to improve recreation areas in West Madison and near Madison Junior High School, along with blacktopping streets, establishing a burglar alarm system for the city and improving street lighting at intersections. ## Revive fire hall site

A move to buy a tract of land at Johnson Road and Richmond Avenue for construction of a new Granite City fire station was reinstated by the City Council Monday night.

An ordinance calling for purchase of the site from Granite City Realty Co. at a price of $11,750 was placed on first reading after several aldermen again voiced objections to the plan.

An effort to buy the ground was defeated in council action in mid-January after a delegation of residents living in the neighborhood of the proposed new station expressed objections at a council session. At that time an ordinance authorizing purchase of the tract at a cost of $12,000 was rejected by a vote of six in favor and four against, with a minimum of eight favorable votes needed for approval.

When the ordinance was presented Monday night, Alderman Walter Nomm challenged the council's right to act in the matter on grounds the council first would have to rescind its action in January which rejected the earlier effort to buy the ground.

He was overruled, however, when it was noted that the new price of $11,750 as the purchase price constituted an entirely new action and therefore was a separate issue.

Upon reading the ordinance, Alderman Roy Poulos, chairman of the council's Ordinance Committee, moved for a suspension of rules to place the ordinance on final passage. The motion was defeated in an 8 to 4 vote.

Sewer hopes rise

By GARY SCHNEIDER
 Press-Record Staff Writer
 Realistic hopes for completion of the proposed Four Township Sewer System in 1975 were expressed this week by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission (SIMAPC) and by supervisors of the townships.

The $12 million sewer program would provide sanitary interceptor and collector sewers for Nameoki, Chouteau, Venice and Granite City townships.

The sewers would link to the Granite City system and waste would be treated at the Granite City sewage treatment plant and the new secondary sewage treatment plant now under construction.

Sewer project applications have been assigned priority numbers by the state and a priority number of 171 was announced this week for the local project.

Since a U.S. court order forced release of $6 billion in water pollution control funds previously impounded by President Nixon, the state has announced it will fund projects with priorities through 125 in this fiscal year.

Since new regulations will not allow new projects to assume higher priorities than existing applications, the Four Township sewer program should be guaranteed a priority number

Port may join city

A proposal to annex a portion of the Tri-City Regional Port to Granite City is under consideration, Mayor Paul Schuler informed the City Council Monday night.

Schuler informed the aldermen that the port authority is expected to request annexation to the city when Alderman Gerald Farmley suggested during Monday's council meeting that annexation of the port "would be a good thing."

Carl Ranft, manager of the Tri-City Port, said annexation to Granite City is being planned, but that it will hinge upon approval of legislation by which the Illinois Department of Transportation could deed to the Port District a strip of land along FA Route 151 (The Great River Road) to permit contiguous boundaries which would clear the way for annexation.

Ranft said the city could annex only that part of the port area that is owned by the port authority—an area of about 67 acres. Land along the riverfront that is leased by the port authority from the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers could not be involved in the annexation, he explained.

The strip of land along the River Road is about 1,000 feet in length between North Street and a point just south of Rock Road, and varies in width between the highway right-of-way and the port boundaries from 10 to 60 feet, Ranft said.

The land originally was acquired by the state as right-of-way for construction of FA Route 151, but is now not needed.

Venice vote on tax rate for schools

The need of an 80-cent increase in the educational fund tax rate of Venice School District 3 was challenged yesterday as district voters prepared to go to the polls to decide the issue Friday.

Opponents to the proposed increase, which would raise the district's tax rate for the educational fund from its present $2.05 to $2.85 per $100 assessed valuation, claimed figures released by school officials to support the tax proposal do not present "a true picture" of the school district's financial position.

School officials, on the other hand, maintain the district is in such a financial dilemma that a shutdown of the Venice schools is almost a certainty if the tax increase is not approved by the voters tomorrow.

Leo Davinroy, president of the Venice School District, added his opinion Wednesday to that of John Pier, school superintendent, that there would be no alternative to closing the school system if the 80-cent rate boost is rejected.

Tomorrow's vote will be the third attempt to increase the educational fund tax rate in less than a year. Voters rejected a proposal for a $1.20 tax rate boost in June last year, then turned down a proposition for an 80-cent increase last Dec. 7.

School officials contend that the 80-cent rate is necessary to produce sufficient tax revenue to pay off a deficit that has been accumulating during the past several years, and to meet increased operating costs resulting from inflation in all phases of operations.

Proponents of the proposal maintain that unless the rate increase is approved it will be necessary for the district to borrow $375,000 for operating costs during the remainder of the year.

Local case of Reye's syndrome
 Granite City has one of the few confirmed cases of Reye's syndrome in this metropolitan area, a 15-year-old boy who is reported in good condition at Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis.

The victim is David Moutria, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moutria, 2560 North St., who was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital here a week ago and transferred to the St. Louis hospital where the ailment was diagnosed, according to an uncle, Joe Moutria.

The boy is a freshman at Granite City High School South. He suffered an attack of what was believed to be flu about a week before he developed symptoms of the comparatively new disease.

Reye's syndrome, which was not identified as a disease until 1963, is not contagious, but doctors and some hospitals have been receiving calls from anxious parents whose children show some symptoms of the affliction—persistent vomiting, sleepiness, lethargy and irritability. Customarily the disease follows an upper respiratory disease such as a cold, flu or chickenpox.

While reports say that some children may have had a mild attack of the disease without

Defend Chouteau spending policy

Chouteau Township policies regarding tax collection were defended today by Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks, a candidate for the Madison County Board position in District 16.

A rival candidate had said Monday that Chouteau property owners are paying twice to have the same taxes collected.

"Mr. Thoele's claims, the township wastes 20 per cent of the Town Fund in the collection of taxes. With this, I disagree," Sparks said.

"The actual figures show our township collector's cost of money and paying the funds to each taxing body is share was only about one per cent. This is far less than it cost the taxpayers to have the county collect what is collected."

"Furthermore, when we needed funds to pay some of our bills, we were able to receive a partial payment from our collector soon after the collection started."

closed and had to be turned in to the county treasurer," Sparks related.

"I believe it is to the advantage of the taxpayer and the township to have our local tax collector do the job he was elected to do."

"He not only goes into several areas to make it convenient for the people to pay their taxes, but his office is open most of the time for the convenience of the people. This saves time and money for the public, to say nothing about the trouble of parking and paying parking meters."

"Let's not be brainwashed into believing that local government is inefficient."

"We are local people who have to face our people every day."

Davis guilty in Madison bank holdup

A federal grand jury at Alton Tuesday found Davis, 27, St. Louis, guilty of robbing the First National Bank in Madison June 29, 1973.

Davis also was found guilty of interstate shipment of a stolen motor vehicle used in the robbery here. It belonged to a Highland man and was stolen in East St. Louis U. S. Court Judge Omar Potts gave Davis' attorney 10 days in which to file post-trial motions before sentencing.

Davis stole $250 from a cashier at the bank after giving her a note asking for $1,500. He was arrested in St. Louis two days after the robbery.

Plan emergency training

A highway safety project for Madison County has been approved by the Illinois Department of Transportation. Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene announced this week. Under terms of the project, Lewis and Clark Community College, in coordination with Wood River Township Hospital, will conduct a training program for ambulance attendants over the next twelve months.

"This program will be of great help in improving the emergency medical service available to persons injured in vehicle accidents," Vadalabene said.

"Often, the ambulance attendant is the first trained professional to arrive on the scene. Immediate emergency treatment can be crucial." The total cost of the project will be approximately $30,945. On completion of the project, a maximum of $6,780 will be reimbursed to the college from funds made available to emergency medical service activities under provisions of the Illinois Highway Safety Program.

Hooks, Dutko honored

J. Richard Hooks, advisor of Explorer Post 10-4, and Madison Chief of Police Frank Dutko received special awards Wednesday night for their contributions to the success of the post over the past four years.

In addition to framed certificates of appreciation they received ceramic painted decalors in the shape of a Mack Sennett "Keystone Cop."

Hooks, now 22, joined Post 10-4 at age 18 when it was first organized, and became the organization's first president. Under his leadership, the "Law Enforcement" specialty post grew from its original eight charter members to 33 active Explorers.

Although his first experience with the Scouting program was as a member of the Order of the Arrow and was elected vice-chief of the Cahokia Lodge, Order of the Arrow.

Authorities of the Cahokia Mound Council hired him as program director of Camp Sunnen in 1971 and then promoted him in 1972 to camp director, a position which he still holds.

Chief Dutko, a police captain when Explorer Post 10-4 was organized in October 1969, also was a member of the Madison Lions Club, co-sponsor of the post and became a charter member of the adult committee.

Dutko has continued giving assistance to the young men in helping line up speakers on law enforcement subjects, making the facilities of the department available to them, helping with transportation on camps and activities, as well as providing equipment for numerous displays that have won the group several honors during the past four years.

Others honored at the dinner were Madison Mayor Mike Ozanich, treasurer of the Madison Lions Club. All are charter members of the post.

In October 1969, Mayor Sasyk, then president of the board of police commissioners and an active Lions Club member, made the original motion for the Lions Club to sponsor the Explorer unit. As police commissioner and as mayor he has continued support of the group and has encouraged others to help the young men.

Dubish, owner of Edray Foods, a wholesale food distributor in Granite City, made the original motion in 1969 and has continued his support of the post as a member of the adult committee.

Every Explorer's mother received a pink corsage from her son as she arrived.

Post President William Widner acted as master-of-ceremonies. Explorer William Kinkel said grace before dinner and Ozanich presented each Explorer with his official membership card.

Explorer Brad Brown opened the meeting with the pledge and closing remarks were made by Jack Small, first vice-president.

E. Ray Grisham, president of the Cahokia Mound Council whose son Mike is a "104" member, spoke briefly on the family enrollment plan, a financial support program for the local Scout Council.

Ozanich, president of the Madison County Sheriff John Maerka; a charter member of the post committee; William Monical, scout executive; Mark Yehling, district scout executive; G. Rollin Henn, honorary member of the post; David Wilson, Explorer program chairman for the local Scout council, and Larry Todoroff, district Explorer chairman.

Hope to boost state park use

Gov. Dan Walker yesterday outlined as goals of the Department of Conservation for fiscal 1975 to: improve facilities and expand the state recreation system at a higher appropriation level; increase and improve hunting and fishing opportunities; and further upgrade conservation law enforcement (game warden) service.

A major department objective is to attract and accommodate an additional 800,000 visitors to state recreation facilities.

The objectives were part of the department budget released this week by Gov. Walker, calling for a $5 million increase, from $28,888,400 to $34,850,300.

Those present were informed that a suit filed by township residents cooperating as the Nameoki Taxpayers for Uniform Countywide Taxation remains on the court docket but a hearing date has not yet been set.

The group objects to Nameoki Township being among the few selected for reassessment this year. They feel the reassessment is causing them to pay a higher proportion of real estate taxes than residents of other townships.

The board voted to allow a trash hauler to resume collections in the East Madison area and to drop a lawsuit which was being prepared against him.

The board had alleged the hauler continued to use an open truck while a township ordinance requires that all trash and garbage trucks be covered. The hauler has had his truck covered and has agreed to keep it enclosed during collections, the board was told.

The township building inspector said he was receiving little response to his attempts to have property owners repair and clean their properties in the Cloverleaf Addition area. The board said where residents are not cooperating with the inspector's orders, he is authorized to contact the township's attorney and initiate legal action.

A representative of residents on Warnock Avenue asked how street lighting may be obtained for that street.

The residents have the options of purchasing lights jointly or joining the Bellemore Place-Miracle Manor Street Lighting District.

Following the town board meeting, the finance and auditing committee met and audited the township's books. The books also are audited by a certified public accountant.

Nameoki board told of more drainage problems

Nameoki Township health officials have the authority to clean culverts and provide drainage in areas where water has become stagnant and presents a danger to health, the town board was told at its meeting Monday night.

A legal opinion by William Schooley, township attorney, held that township health officers may include drainage in the scope of their duties, but only when a health threat exists. The legal opinion specified the health officer is not authorized to provide surface drainage when the water is not stagnant.

Items dealing with drainage occupied much of the time of the town board meeting. Among the areas discussed was the Parkway Estates subdivision where a dead-end ditch has allowed water to collect.

Recently, the Alton and Southern Railroad opened culverts under its tracks, allowing some of the standing water to drain to the east onto farm land.

Questions were raised on the legal aspects of moving the water onto private property and it was claimed that anyone who receives water from a neighbor can sue that neighbor for flooding his land.

Auditor Lee Adams requested the township highway commissioner, Albert Bell, to notify the state highway department of three blocked culverts along Route 162. It is the state's responsibility to maintain the culverts along state highways, he was told.

The board heard a letter from Louis Whitsell, township supervisor, to Schooley, asking him to meet with subdividers.

The board was told seven contractors have obtained copies of specifications for bidding on expanding and remodeling the town hall. Bids are to be opened.

DeMolay supper serves 1,000
DeMolays and Mother's Club members of James Stuart Chapter reported this week that 1,000 persons were served at their annual chili supper at the Masonic Temple.

Included were 308 served at noon and 692 served in the evening, with 466 of the total being carryouts.

Bernice Fitzpatrick, chili supper chairman, and Bill Cochran, master counselor, expressed appreciation for the support of the public for this annual project.

Water along Route 203 flows south, ending up in the Nameoki Ditch, and goes to Horseshoe Lake. Eventually, it flows through the Cahokia Canal into the Mississippi River.

A resident of Snowbird Lane, complained of a deep open drainage ditch behind his and his neighbors' homes. He requested a pipe be installed and the ditch filled, since it presents a danger to children.

Whitsell explained that drainage projects are not among the duties the highway commissioner or township are authorized to undertake and said the ditch is the responsibility of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Those present agreed to attend the levee board's March 6 meeting to request needed local drainage improvements.

A letter from a local real estate and insurance agency was read, indicating flood insurance is available for the unincorporated areas of the township. Incorporated areas, including Pontoon Beach, do not qualify at this time, the letter indicated.

The board was told seven contractors have obtained copies of specifications for bidding on expanding and remodeling the town hall. Bids are to be opened.

Dave Epping as elected delegates from here.

Other members attending were Jim Boyd, Stanley Myers, Johnny Staggs, Anthony Trislaroff and Paul Woodruff. They were accompanied by Advisor Charles E. Hileman Jr.

It also was reported that 21 DeMolays, advisors and parents attended a hockey game at the St. Louis Arena.

Bill Cochran, master counselor, announced that International DeMolay Week has been set March 17th-24th. During that week, on March 19, the chapter will initiate new DeMolays.

Petitions for this class are to be filed by the chapter's next meeting March 5. A party also is planned that week for the children at Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children.

Burditt, Page rally county Republicans

The annual Lincoln Day Dinner of the Madison County Republican Central Committee attracted a large gathering Monday evening at the Lewis and Clark restaurant, with two statewide candidates in the spotlight.

Harry Page, a candidate for the GOP state treasurer nomination, served as toastmaster and the principal talk was by George M. Burditt, who is expected to win the Republican nomination to oppose U.S. Senator Adlai E. Stevenson III in November.

Page is in a close two-way primary contest. Burditt recalled obstacles faced and overcome by the late Pres. Abraham Lincoln during his lifetime, likening the challenges to those faced by the GOP today.

Both Page and Burditt predicted Republican victories this fall and said the Watergate scandal will not have a major effect on balloting in Illinois where both parties have had key figures indicted and convicted.

Burditt asserted, "Most scandals in Illinois have been Democratic scandals." Describing Sen. Stevenson as an "absentee landlord," his rival recalled accomplishments of the present national administration.

Burditt emphasized highway and transit problems of this region and blamed many of them on Stevenson.

Elliott, an airman at Scott Air Force Base, received minor injuries. He was named on four traffic violation charges, driving under the influence, failure to obey a traffic signal, illegal transportation of alcohol and driving without headlights. Mr. Bachteler was found on his kitchen floor with blood under his head. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner. There will be an inquiry.

Police said there were no signs of foul play and it is believed, Mr. Bachteler died after a fall.

A neighbor said she last had seen Mr. Bachteler about four or five days earlier. Police said the believed he had been dead several days.

A lifelong resident of Granite City, Mr. Bachteler was a member of St. John United Church of Christ.

Members of Local 67, United Steelworkers of America, are announcing their endorsement of the candidacy of Horace L. Calvo for re-election as state representative in the coming primary election.

"Calvo has an outstanding record of devoted service to his constituents, many of whom are members of Local 67. His 100 per cent voting record for the needs of labor in the state of Illinois guided our members in their selection," President Jim Kainhan and Recording Secretary George Knecht said.

of 46 in the next fiscal year which begins in July.

Louis Whitel, supervisor of Nameoki Township, commented, "I want to predict that we are going to have it next (fiscal) year, but I will say we are closer than ever before to seeing this project become a reality."

Walter "Dick" Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau Township, agreed, saying the township is beginning immediately the process of obtaining funding for the local share of the cost of the project.

"We understand when the government offers grants, local shares must be available. We do not know when the state and federal grants may be available, but we want to be ready when that time comes, so we are beginning our planning now," Sparks said.

Chris Pasch, supervisor of Venice Township, and Nelson Hagnauer, supervisor of Madison County, also were informed of a grant and loan program available to the federal Farm and Home Administration (FHA) for collector sewers. Townships must show their populations are primarily rural to qualify for the grants.

Because of the requirement for rural makeup to qualify, Granite City Township will not be able to make use of the program, but the other townships are studying whether they qualify.

Monday night, both the Nameoki and Chouteau board of auditors began steps to complete applications for the FHA grants and loans. Nameoki Township referred the question to its drainage committee for study and Chouteau Township is to have a study made to see if it qualifies.

Grants for the interceptor sewers have been filed with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and were turned over to the federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), which HUD has abolished. The EPA grant application is the one which has received the priority number of 171.

Some aid also is being sought from the state's $750 million anti-pollution bond program. Most of that money was held by the state and is expected to be released for such projects as the Four Township Sewer.

Studies have shown that about $7 million of the total $12 million price tag will come from state and federal funding with the four townships having to come up with the remaining $5 million.

The supervisors agree that revenue bonds may well be the best way for the townships to raise the money.

Granite City Township, which is coextensive with Granite City, already has its sewers and will not be required to participate in the funding of the program, according to Hagnauer.

Sparks said he already has spoken to William Schooley, Chouteau's attorney, about preparing bonds for the local share.

Nameoki Township realizes revenue bonds are the best answer and will begin efforts in that direction in the near future, Whitel said.

"We think the county will have to serve as sponsoring agent for any revenue bonds and we are looking into it," Whitel said, adding, "It will not cost the county a cent."

"The cost of the bonds will be paid back by user fees and tapon fees. We estimate user fees will be $5 to $10 per foot and tapon fees $10 per foot. We find out how much we are going to have to pay back," Whitel commented.

BURGLARY ON HARRIS

Rail, stock values up

Schedule 31, improvement on leased property by railroads, is $260,975.

without cost, as student teachers at the park district's pre-school at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Franklin and Amos avenues.

6 roll call vote, with all 14 council members present. A suspension of rules requires a minimum favorable vote of 10 aldermen.

Everett Morlen, chairman of the City Buildings Committee, told the aldermen that he has been looking for another site since this one was turned down, but a good site is hard to find for the purpose of this one.

Nonn, referring to objections by neighborhood residents, commented that "I wouldn't want to go into an area where we are not wanted."

Nonn also commented that when the Johnson-Richmond site first was considered, "I was told the price was only $9,500." Morlen said that wasn't true. "I said $10,000," he replied.

Council members agreed to place the ordinance on first reading to give neighborhood residents another opportunity to be heard before final action is taken.

Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward, in which the new station would be located, said that since the original effort to buy the site was rejected, "I have had some calls from residents who favor the station."

Further action on the proposal is expected in the council's regular meeting Monday night.

ficals and they have no objections to Madison using the new spot.

The Mayor said the new recreation facilities will be put in West Madison and at the Madison Junior High School as soon as details are worked out with the Madison School Board.

Installation of new Class "D" street lights at all intersections in the city, replacing the 11,000 lumen lights, will begin next week.

Sasky announced plans are developing for a citywide silent burglar alarm system which would be available at what he felt was a very low cost, to business, churches and schools.

After it is available and working, the city will try to work out a system whereby burglar alarms may be put in private homes.

The mayor said details as to cost and financing have not been finalized yet, but should be ready soon.

Funding for the new projects will be from several sources including federal revenue sharing and motor fuel tax monies. Nameoki Township will share in the cost of the recreational project, he explained.

Future projections by Mayor were the blacktopping of city alleys, installation of closed trash containers and a shopping center in the city of Madison.

3 seek county clerk Democratic nomination

VON DEE CRUSE

Von Dee Cruse, 50, assessor of Granite City Township, is one of three persons seeking nomination for the office of Madison County clerk.

A resident of 2401a Edwards St., Cruse has extensive experience in elective governmental offices.

Cruse, owner and operator of Jacobmeyer's tavern, was a candidate in the primary two years ago for the office of County Recorder of Deeds. He later was named Granite City assessor when the previous assessor advanced to the post of Madison County supervisor of assessments.

He was elected in May 1971 as a trustee of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, but never was seated due to court rulings. A lifelong resident of Granite City, he attended local schools and Washington University in St. Louis.

Cruse formerly served on the staff of the clerk of the Circuit Court as administrative circuit clerk, and worked as a mail carrier for the Granite City Post Office.

He served seven years as alderman in the former East Granite Ward Six, and was Granite City Township tax assessor eight years (1966-66).

Cruse is a member of Masonic Lodge 835, the Shrine, Scottish Rite Bodies, American Legion Post 113, the Eagles and Elks lodges and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Married and the father of two children, Cruse is a patternmaker by trade, having worked nine years at General Steel Industries. He is a member of Trinity Methodist Church.

His goal as assessor has been "fair and equitable distribution of the tax load."

He has said he will dispose of his tavern ownership if it becomes a legal obstacle to holding public office.

Endorsed by the Madison County Democratic Central Committee for the office of county clerk, Cruse views the selection as being based on his qualifications for the office.

"I consider my service to the public in the past and my dedication and work for the Democratic party," he comments.

His proposals for improved county clerk services include further and faster computerization of county records, and establishment of voter registrars conveniently and continuously available to the public.

An unsuccessful mayor candidate in 1965, Cruse has been elected to office repeatedly and views this as recognition of his interest in and responsiveness to citizens' concerns and wishes.

He would expedite and expand cooperation between the county clerk's office and the county's legislative body, the Madison County Board, he reports.

He concludes that his direct knowledge of — and experience with — city, township and county government would be of value to the public in helping him administer the county clerk office, whose work reflects directly to all of these levels of government.

MISS EVELYN BOWLES

Miss Evelyn M. Bowles, 52, Edwardsville, one of three candidates for the Democratic nomination as Madison County Clerk, has 22 years of experience as the chief deputy of retiring Clerk Eulalia Hotz.

A native of Worden, Ill., she attended Worden and Livingston schools, Illinois State University, Greenville College and Southern Illinois University.

Member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Edwardsville, she owned a photography studio for five years and was a school teacher six years before joining the staff of the county clerk.

Miss Bowles served two and a half years in the Coast Guard Women's Reserve (Spars) Intelligence Division.

She has served 20 years as an officer of Local 799, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

A precinct committeewoman for the past 14 years, she was county chairlady of the Madison County Democratic Women's Organization from 1970 to 1972. Her affiliations include the Daughters of Isabella, American Legion Auxiliary, Audubon Society and Edwardsville Business and Professional Women's Club.

She comments, "I feel my 22 years as chief deputy for Eulalia Hotz qualify me to carry out the functions of the office."

"I have worked in all areas of responsibility in the office, with particular emphasis on election matters, voter registration and delinquent taxes."

"As chief deputy, I have the same responsibilities as the county clerk and must carry on the duties and supervise the personnel in her absence."

Miss Bowles adds, "The county clerk's office has been intimately involved in the conversion of the tax structure to data processing."

"If I am elected, it would be my purpose and intention to cooperate, in every conceivable manner, to assure speedier tax rate computations, billing and distribution which would assist taxing districts in avoiding the issuance of tax anticipation warrants."

"Interest money saved could be utilized in other areas by the districts. After the Colman-Trumbull contract expires, and our data processing department takes over the tax work, the county clerk's office will be responsible for maintenance and updating of the property record files."

"If elected, I would utilize employees presently on the staff of the county clerk's office to do the data recording."

"These people could then be used in other areas of the office when they were not working on the tax files. This would result in a saving for taxpayers. This has been the practice of Miss Hotz and I would continue this same economical approach."

"In addition, it would be my purpose to convert the Permanent Voters' Registration files to computer. This would allow greater flexibility for the printing of lists and voters' identification cards."

"The target date for such a conversion is indeterminate, at this time, since the data processing department will be totally involved in the tax conversion. But I would want to accomplish this as soon as the computer department could accommodate the additional work."

"After the first of April 1974, the county clerk will again have permanent deputy registrars in the county. These will be selected from lists provided by the county chairmen of the two parties, as prescribed by the Illinois Election Code."

"If this proves to be a viable vehicle for registration, I would consider an expansion of the program. But any and all changes would be in complete compliance with the state laws."

"I would continue the special

ROBERT GRAYSON JR.

Robert "Bob" Grayson Jr. is one of three Democratic candidates for county clerk of Madison County in the March primary.

"I am 27 years old and have been a resident of Granite City all of my life," he relates. I attended Granite City's public schools and am a graduate of Granite City Senior High School South.

"I spent four years in the U.S. Navy doing clerical work. I am also a Vietnam veteran."

"Presently employed as a meter reader for Illinois Power Co. in Granite City, I am married and have two children. My wife's name is Elaine, and my children are Daniel, two years, and Rebecca, six months. I am a member of Amvets Post 203."

"If elected as county clerk, I will perform to the best of my ability the duties of this office," he comments. "I believe that Miss Eulalia Hotz has done an outstanding job as county clerk."

"However, I feel that there is always room for improvement in any field."

"I would investigate the possibilities of modernizing some of the office's facilities. 'One of these facilities would be increased reliance on data processing. If it is found to be economically feasible for the people of Madison County.'"

The candidate resides at 2328 Edison Ave.

Authority aid is accredited

James H. Thorsen, assistant to the executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, has qualified as an accredited member of the American Association of Airport Executives.

Accreditation is awarded on the basis of experience, an examination by the association's board of examiners and the preparation of an original paper on a phase of airport management.

Only 300 airport executives have earned accreditation. The association, founded in 1928, is composed of 1,100 members representing the management of the nation's public airports.

Thorsen was selected for his position with the St. Louis Authority in 1971 on the basis of a nationwide search. He has served as manager of Bowman Field, Louisville, Ky., and as administrative assistant at the Greater Rockford Airport, Rockford, Ill. He is a graduate of Ripon College, Ripon, Wis.

The St. Louis Metropolitan Area Authority has applied for federal approval to develop the new St. Louis Intercontinental Airport at Columbia-Waterloo, Illinois.

Public hearing on zoning set

A public hearing on a proposed new zoning ordinance for the city of Madison will be held at 7 p.m. Friday, March 15, at the Madison City Hall.

John N. Belcoff, city clerk and chairman of the zoning committee, made the announcement at the Madison City Council meeting Tuesday.

Belcoff said that copies of the proposed zoning ordinance are on file and available for examination at the city clerk's office, 1529 Third St.

"The Clerk said the city received assistance from the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission (SIMAPC) developing the zoning code."

The council approved payment of $282 to SIMAPC as the city's share of the group's operation.

Mayor Mike Sasysk praised the work of SIMAPC and said he will ask for help in updating and codifying all city ordinances, and to review procedures and policies of the city.

Alderman John Haynes asked what can be done to speed up the condemnation and razing of old homes and buildings in his ward. The Alderman described one piece of property as "so bad rats won't even stay in it."

Mayor Sasysk assured Haynes the legal department will do everything possible to obtain court action so the city can take action if the property owners won't.

A discussion was held on why some property owners are not having their fire insurance renewed.

Alderman Richard Kisser explained that one problem is the age of many of the homes in Madison, and that old property deteriorates rapidly. He said that "pride of ownership" is a key factor in the insurance firms' determination for fire insurance.

Mayor Sasysk noted that the fire department collected nearly $800 for the Heart fund during the weekend.

Chief of Police Frank Dutko announced that 80 warning tickets were issued to motorists who have not purchased city vehicle stickers. The chief said a record is being kept and a follow up check will be made to insure compliance.

Dutko said persons issued a warning but failing to purchase the sticker face additional costs of a fine, court cost and the cost of the city sticker.

8 Granite City wrestlers in weekend state meet

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Sports Writer

Eight wrestlers representing the two Granite City high schools, North and South, will converge tomorrow on the University of Illinois Assembly Hall at Champaign in an attempt to bring state honors back to Granite City. South seeks the state championship and North an individual weight class championship.

Seven of the eight matmen will attempt to give South High School its second state title, the first since 1965. They are Woody Halbrook, (98 pounds), Phil Lapinski (112), John Niebur (119), Don Heath (126), Don Hasty, (130), Dave Rushing (145), and Brian Wilson (155).

It would be virtually impossible for North's lone representative, Rudy Pyle, (112), to earn enough points to give the new school a state title, but in defeating his opponents, Pyle could emerge from the tournament as the new school's first individual state champion.

All of the eight matmen earned the right to advance to the state finals by performances in the weekend sectional competition here. The event was captured by South with 86 team-points.

GCNS North earned 19½ team points to place sixth in the sectional meet. Pyle was among three North wrestlers who earned points for North during the weekend, the others being Randy Hartline and Bill Carr. Pyle defeated Bruce Mitchell of Belleville West 9-2 in first round action, defeated Carbondale's Terry Covington 22-1, and captured the 112 pound class championship with a 1-0 decision over South's Lapinski.

Hartline earned third spot honors in 98 pound division after losing to South's Halbrook 3-2 in a second place match. Hartline advanced to meet Halbrook via a first round 13-1 victory over Centralia's Kemp Jackson, and a 10-3 win in the semi-final round over Belleville West's Tom Janick.

Carr, at 145 pounds, was a candidate for runnerup honors when he faced Belleville East's Bob Baldwin in a wrestling bout. Carr had defeated Centralia's Rich Bowerman, 7-0, in first round competition before dropping a 6-2 decision to Lincoln's Don Reuter in the semi-finals. In the wrestle-back match with Baldwin, the North matman suffered a dislocated shoulder and lost the match on default.

Carr underwent minor surgery to the shoulder at St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday where he was reported in satisfactory condition this week.

North's head mentor, Walt Whitaker, told the Press-Record, "Pyle is in for a lot of pressure at the state meet."

"A lot depends on a wrestler taking an individual title," he said. "Luck, proper pairing, state of mind, and most important, determination."

"I've gone to state many times as an assistant with the South wrestling team, but it's a great feeling to see one of your own make it there."

"Is it hard on my nerves? Let's just say I think I am the only coach around who takes aspirins without water," Whitaker said.

Two of South's statebound matmen are veteran state competitors. Lapinski placed fourth at 105 pounds last year and Niebur was fifth at 112. Lapinski took runnerup honors at the sectional here in 112 pound competition by defeating Belleville Althoff's Randy Schmidt 7-2 and Carbondale's Terry Covington 22-1, before losing to Pyle in the championship bout.

Niebur pinned Carlos Weston of East St. Louis in 5-04 for the 119 pound championship after pinning Centralia's Tim Reese and O'Fallon's Dwayne Winkler.

Slated to see state action for the first time are South's 98 pound runnerup Halbrook, 126 runnerup Heath, 138 runnerup Hasty, 145 champion Rushing, and 155 champion Wilson.

Halbrook emerged as runnerup after posting a 58 second pin against Carbondale's Bill Coracy in the sectional's first round. Halbrook lost 4-1 to Jim Reiser in semi-finals and then defeated Jacksonville's Dave Reside 9-0 in the wrestle-backs.

Heath took runnerup honors after losing 2-1 in the championship bout with David Thomas of Springfield Southeast. Heath had defeated Mount Carmel's David Baumgartner 12-2 and Quincy's Leif Houkum 3-2 in overtime, to advance to the sectional finals.

Hasty, in his first year with the Warriors, downed Kenny Walker of Harrisburg 5-2, lost 4-2 to Rick Slider of East St. Louis Lincoln, and emerged as runnerup with a 9-2 decision over Lincoln's Dennis Minick in wrestle-back competition.

Rushing ran through the sectional undefeated, having won 12-1 over Brees's Thomas Olliges, 6-2 in a match with Cahokia's Willie Hickson, and earning an 11-4 decision over Lincoln's Don Reuter in the championship battle.

Wilson also was undefeated last weekend. He won his first round bout with a 4-57 pin of Centralia's John Holtkamp, a 3-2 decision over Belleville East's Gary Knott, and a 10-9 victory over Wood River's Don Smith in the finals.

With the flu bug running rampant throughout the area, matmen of both local high schools, who placed third and fourth in the sectional tournament cannot be discounted as state competitors.

Illinois High School Association wrestling rules provide for advancement to the state finals for first and second place matmen in each weight division from each sectional meet throughout the state.

The IHSA rules also state that if either the first or second place sectional wrestlers should be unable to participate in the state finals, third and fourth place sectional wrestlers will be selected as alternates.

If it should become necessary, alternate state wrestlers, representing both Granite City High Schools, would be: 98 pound — Randy Hartline (North); 105 — Jim Caschetta (South); 132 — Dan Heath (South); and 185 — John Avedisian (South).

The two-day state finals at Champaign will begin at 1 p.m. tomorrow with first round matches. Tomorrow also will see second round competition and first round wrestle-backs. Saturday semi-final action will begin at noon as will second round wrestle-backs. At 2:15 p.m. Saturday, third-round wrestle-backs will begin. Third and fifth-place matches will get underway at 6 p.m. Saturday. Championship finals are slated to start at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Long awaited North, South cage clash will be Friday

"We feel we have a good chance winning. Our morale is up, more so this week than at any other time this season."

Those were the words of Granite City High School South's basketball coach Bryan Wilkinson, speculating on tomorrow's cage contest here between the Warriors and the new Steelers of Granite City High School North.

South and North will meet for the first time ever in varsity basketball as a prelude to their scheduled clash in Monday's Class AA Regional Tournament game also to be held here.

Friday's contest is the last regular season game on North's schedule whereas the Warriors are to face Belleville East here Saturday in a makeup contest.

North boasts a winning record as a first year school and the South Warriors seek their first win of the season as an old school, but with a relatively inexperienced ball club.

Saturday's 8 p.m. contest at the South gymnasium with the Lancers of East should see the Warriors with a slight edge. South had a chance to study the Belleville squad carefully in a 74-61 loss to East on Feb. 9.

South trailed the East squad by only seven points, 39-32, at half-time that night and was down by only nine, 53-44, going into the final quarter. Mike Martinez earned 22 points in the contest to head South's scoring efforts. Jim Nolan added 14, Tom Schooley 10, Ken Bertrand nine and Bob Hutchings seven.

East will enter Saturday's game with South after losing 82-75 in overtime to crosstown rival Belleville West during the weekend.

Tomorrow's South-North game at 8 p.m. will be considered a home game for North, even though it will be played at South.

Steele Athletic Director Don Detering asked North supporters to be seated in the home seating section during the game. South fans will occupy the visitors' section.

North vs. South cage clash to open regional

The 1974 Illinois High School Association Class AA basketball race for the state title gets under way Monday at 36 different locations throughout the state, including Granite City.

For the two Granite City high schools, North and South, it is a long road from here to the glamour and glitter of the state finals on March 22-23 at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall in Champaign.

Both schools are assigned to regional competition here and must face some of the toughest competition in the area, including each other.

The seed part of the regional, which begins Monday at the South gymnasium, is that only North or South will have a chance to advance against the other participating schools, as the two local quintets face each other at 7:30 p.m. Monday at South's gym.

Whichever Granite City school should emerge victorious Monday, it will have to meet the Edwardsville Tigers at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Edwardsville, tied with Alton for second place in the Southwestern Conference, has a 19-5 record, losing only one game over both North and South.

The Tigers are third in this region on offense, averaging 78.5 points per game, while allowing an average of 60.8 points against them. Senior Greg Ahari leads the team in scoring with a 20-point Friday.

The winner of Wednesday's contest will advance to the regional championship game at 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 8, against the winner of Tuesday's 7:30 p.m. Collinsville-Roxana contest.

Collinsville, the newly crowned Southwestern Conference champion, is the top-seeded team in the tournament with a 21-3 overall record. The Hawks, averaging 78.8 points per game in scoring, by the 28 points per outing of senior Marc Fletcher, son of Coach Vergil Fletcher.

Collinsville has posted season victories over both local high schools.

Coach Fletcher says of the Stealers: "North has a fine basketball team. The boys play a control type of game over both the ball well."

Roxana, now 14-11 after losing to GCHS North 62-54, here Tuesday, is led by junior Chris Schroder, averaging 18.4 points. North upped its record to 13-9 with its victory over Roxana Tuesday and will visit South tomorrow night to end the Stealers' regular season.

North is allowing opponents to score only 57.3 points a game. Steeler scoring is paced by senior Dave Scherke with an average of 19.7.

The Warriors of South High, winless this season in 20 outings, are a young ball club still in a rebuilding stage after losing many of its varsity players in last year's enrollment reassignment.

South has played well during the season, including a recent holiday tournament in which the Warriors matched Waukegan almost basket-for-basket in the first half to make the score 33-31 at halftime. The third period went on to defeat the local squad. Mike Martiner tallied 36 points for South that contest.

Another shining game this season for the Warriors was Jan. 11 here against Cahokia. South fell 74-72 to Cahokia in overtime after nearly pulling out a win.

Despite a winless regular season going into tomorrow's meeting with North, and then Belleville East here Saturday, Warrior Coach Bryan Wilkinson feels his team has a good chance of winning.

"Our morale is up, and we are getting better all the time," remarked the head coach.

Fans discounting the Warriors as possible regional victors because of South's record this season might well recall the region's several years ago in which Belleville East, after winning only a few of its season games, went on to capture the regional and advance beyond that.

Coach William Ohlendorf, who coached Varsity to third place in the state Class A finals last year, is leading his North Stealers into their first regional as a new school.

How does Ohlendorf feel about his team's chances? "It all depends on what we can do in the regional," he explains.

The Stealers have proven they can make those adjustments against area teams with productive results.

The winner of the 1974 regional tournament will join the winners of the East St. Louis, Belleville East and Alton regionals at Edwardsville March 12, 13 and 15 for the Class AA sectional.

Other than the South Regional tournament, participating schools in the Collinsville-bound Class AA meets are:

East St. Louis Regional—Cahokia, East St. Louis Assumption, East St. Louis

Lincoln and East St. Louis Senior High.

Belleville East Regional—Belleville Althoff, O'Fallon, Belleville West, Highland and the host school.

Alton Regional—Hillsboro, Wood River, Bethalto, Jerseyville and Alton Senior High.

Kentucky Fried Chicken posted scores of 15-2, 15-8 over Ruggedy Anns, Matthews downed the Bills 15-12, 15-3, 16-14, and the Rebels won, 15-12, 15-4, over Sammy's. In the remaining contest Apple Valley defeated Midtown Pharmacy twice, 15-5 and 15-12, before falling to Midtown in the third contest 15-11.

State cage meet for park teams here

Eight men's basketball teams, representing six areas of the state, will converge on Grigsby Junior High School this weekend to participate in the Eighth Annual Illinois Park and Recreation Society State Basketball Tournament.

The event, which begins at noon Saturday and concludes with a championship game at 1 p.m. Sunday, is being hosted by the second time in four years by the Granite City Park District.

Six champions and two runnerup teams from the Centralia, Sterling, Arlington Heights (Ill.), Des Plaines, Highland Park, and Elmhurst districts will compete at Grigsby for the state championship.

The Granite City squad was eliminated from competition during the weekend at the Centralia District meet.

Each team consists of players 19 or older who are not members of high school, college, semi-professional or professional teams during the current season.

Harold Brown, director of parks and recreation here, told the Press-Record, "Admission to the public is free. Area residents will have a chance to see many former top college stars in action during the single-elimination meet."

First round pairings for Saturday are Centralia's second place team vs. Elmhurst's first place squad at noon; first place Arlington Heights vs. first place Sterling at 1:30 p.m.; first place Des Plaines vs. second place Sterling at 3 p.m., and first place Centralia vs. first place Highland Park at 4:30 p.m.

On Sunday at 10 a.m., the winners of the first two contests will kickoff semifinal action, followed at 11:30 a.m. by the winners of the Saturday's remaining two games.

At 1 p.m. Sunday, winners of the two Sunday morning games will clash for the state championship.

Strategy change aids North win

"If you cannot run through them, around them."

That was the message of GCHS North Tuesday night at South Gym in defeat of the Shells 62-54 in one of the most closely-matched contests witnessed by Steeler fans.

Roxana stopped the Stealers cold with the Shells' inside smothering defense throughout the first half of the game.

North came out in the second half with a perimeter type attack, surrounding its basket, with Roxana inside.

The Stealers passed the ball around the circle, mixing long shots with quick inside passes to Scherke.

The Stealers tallied only two field goals and five free throws in the first quarter to lead Roxana 9-6. North held a one-point margin at the end of three periods, 28-37.

Roxana had inched ahead of North, 37-36, with one minute left in the third period.

Grant City rallied in the final period with eight field goals and eight free throws to the Shells' four goals and nine charity tosses.

Overall, the Stealers made 23 baskets from the field and hit 16 of 27 field shots. Roxana connected with 18 field goals and was 18 for 30 on free throws.

Tim Monahan was high scorer for the Shells with 19.

Scherke again paced the North charges in scoring with 12 field goals and five free throws for 29 points. Daryl Page tallied 12, Greg Gauzen seven, Gene Logas six and Don Lloyd and Gary Simpson, four apiece.

North, now 13-9, ends its regular season schedule tomorrow in an 8 p.m. contest with GCHS South at the South gym. North is listed as host school for the game, despite the location.

GC sophs in cage tourney

Sophomore basketball squads from both Granite City High School South and North are among eight teams which will participate this weekend at Jerseyville High School in an annual Jerseyville tourney.

The Warriors of South will meet Bethalto at 3 p.m. Saturday in the second game of the tournament. North Stealers will see action at 6:30 p.m. Saturday against Roxana.

Edwardsville and Wood River meet Saturday at 1 p.m. to kick off the opening rounds. The other first-round game of the meet is at 8 p.m. Saturday between Hillsboro and the host school.

South enters the tournament with a 21-16 season record, tied one contest yet to be played, and is averaging 45 points a game against its opponents.

Some of the sophomore Warrior losses have been by less than three points. Tony Stajduhar heads the team in scoring with 114 points this season.

North's Stealers have a 10-8 season record with one game yet to play before the tournament. The sophomores boast 6-9 Tom Spurlock and high scorer Rick Scherke, who in one contest tallied 40 points.

North and South could advance to the championship game at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 7, with first-round wins and victories in semifinal action Monday.

Losses by both local squads in the semifinals would result in one or both competing for third place at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

A loss in the first round would eliminate either from the tournament.

Regional tourney tickets on sale

Second place Assumption of East St. Louis now is 12-3 after downing Collinsville 12-1 Friday night. Collinsville is in last place with Belleville. Both have 3-12 records. Belleville was defeated 6-1 by Wood River Friday.

Sen. Stevenson, Williams rivals in March voting

DAKIN WILLIAMS

W. Dakin Williams of 97 Dewey Drive, Collinsville, an attorney and former law professor at St. Louis University, seeks the Democratic U. S. Senate nomination.

He is a veteran of World War II and Korea, serving in the Far East in both wars.

First assistant U. S. district attorney at East St. Louis for five years, 1960-65, he has had a private law practice since 1965.

A native of St. Louis, he moved to Collinsville in 1957.

Williams says he has "a knowledge of problems of this area about which Sen. Stevenson doesn't know and doesn't care. Stevenson is taking the voters of this area for granted."

The Collinsville resident also sought a Senate nomination in 1972.

Married and the father of two children, he holds doctor of laws and bachelor of arts degrees from Washington University, St. Louis, and attended Colorado University and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

He retired from the U. S. Air Force with the rank of major and served overseas in India, Burma and Formosa.

Williams taught constitutional law, trusts, partnership, common law and legal research at St. Louis University.

As first assistant U. S. attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois, he tried all the civil and criminal cases for 45 Illinois counties during the last year of his five-year term.

He holds membership in the American Bar, Illinois State Bar and Missouri Bar Associations and is active in Rotary, the Knights of Columbus and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

He is being supported by the "Go-Dake" organization (Gun Owners for Dakin).

Williams comments, "Sen. Hart of Michigan has a bill ready for passing that would confiscate all guns except those belonging to the police and militia. This will pass if Adlai is re-elected; he not only supports this bill but has introduced one of his own to federally register all guns so that Sen. Hart will know where to pick them up."

"A hundred U.S. senators are waiting to see what happens in 1974. If Sen. Stevenson is re-elected, it will be the go-ahead signal for them to vote for gun confiscation and registration."

Discussing other issues, Williams says, "I oppose abortion, except where the life of the mother is endangered."

"I oppose amnesty for deserters and draft resisters. Citizens must defend their country when at war unless their status as a conscientious objector is authenticated."

"I oppose busing of students as an expensive, time-consuming and impractical solution. I am open to valid solutions to upgrading the education available to poor areas."

"Peace and love should motivate labor and management to work together to avoid the present course of inflation that is pricing American goods out of the market."

"I favor reserving to states all rights not specifically delegated to the federal government."

"Regarding welfare, people willing to work for a living should live better than those who won't."

"Political campaign spending process. I intend to accept no money from lobbyists."

"A senator should represent all the people—free to follow his conscience—and not be coerced to vote 'right' on each and every matter affecting labor, management or foreign policy."

"I am committed to no one except the public."

SEN. ADLAI STEVENSON

U. S. Senator Adlai E. Stevenson III, 43, of Illinois is seeking the Democratic nomination March 19 for re-election to that office.

Elected as Illinois state treasurer in November 1966, he then was elected to the Senate four years later to serve an unexpired term.

The four-year term which he attained in 1970 was part of an original six-year term won in 1968 by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen. Following the latter's death, the late Ralph T. Smith, Alton, a native Granite Cityan, held the Senate post by appointment.

Stevenson served in the Illinois House, to which he was elected in 1964 in an at-large election in which he led all 236 candidates of both parties.

He is a native of Chicago and a graduate of Harvard College with a bachelor of arts degree in 1952, and Harvard Law School with a bachelor of law degree in 1957.

Semifinal regional berths for Venice, Madison cagers

The Venice Red Devils advanced to the semifinals at the Dupo Clark A. Regis last night, downing Brooklyn 56-49 in a season game.

Venice held a 12-6 lead going into the second period, but Brooklyn outscored the local squad to tie the game 25-25 at halftime.

After a halftime talk, Venice players put it all together and slowly began their conquest of the enemy, upping the score to 40-34. Venice added 19 points to Brooklyn's 12 in the final period. The Devils were led in scoring by all-star Ron Henry, who recovered from a bout with the flu to post 35 points.

They outplayed Brooklyn by connecting with 22 field goals and by hitting 15 of 23 from the free line while committing only 10 fouls.

Brooklyn made good 19 from the field, scored on eight of 11 charity throws and fouled 21 times. Two Brooklyn players led their team with 10 points apiece, Jaffe Woolfolk and Keith Caldwell.

Adding to the Red Devils' score were Tony Sifton and Mike Logan with eight points apiece. Reggie Gardner, with four, J. B. Harmon three and Ron Taylor, one.

Venice will meet the Lebanon Greyhounds tonight at 8:30. A win over Lebanon would advance the Red Devils to tomorrow's 7:30 p.m. championship game.

Lebanon faces Venice after an 86-35 victory last night over Dupo. Robert Burns posted 20 points for Lebanon's Greyhounds.

Preceding the Venice-Lebanon clash, the Madison

Trojans will meet St. Henry of Belleville at 7 p.m. today in the first semifinal game of the tournament.

St. Henry Tuesday earned the right to advance to meet top-seeded Madison via a 56-54 victory Tuesday over Columbia. The Belleville squad was led in scoring by the 20 points of Don Rousseau.

Tomorrow's championship game will pit together the winners of tonight's two contests.

The regional winner will advance to the Vandalia sectional meet next week.

Soccer scholarship to Warrior Goldschmidt

Don Goldschmidt, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goldschmidt, 2525 Delmar Ave., will graduate from GCHS last June, but because of his accomplishments in varsity sports his soccer career is not going to end.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association champion St. Louis University has signed an agreement for an estimated $16,000 athletic scholarship for the young athlete.

South underclass cagers win preview over North

The long awaited varsity basketball game between GCHS South and North is scheduled to begin tomorrow night, but last night the freshman and sophomore squads of both schools met at the court at the South gymnasium, with the Warriors emerging victorious over the Steelers in each game.

South's sophomore team trailed North 9-8 at the end of the first period of play, but the Warriors led 27-14 at halftime with the help of 13 points scored by Dave Rhodes. Rhodes, a freshman, tallied 17 points in the contest.

South continue its domination of the game by outscoring the Steelers for a third quarter score of 39-25 and the final, 50-40. Steeler Jim Woodward earned 17 points.

The Warriors freshman squad downed North 52-50, with 20 points scored by Paul Evans of South and 16 by Rhodes. Jerry Barnett posted 14 for Steeler high point honors.

RECORD Deer catch tops all other years

By JOAN MURARO

SPRINGFIELD — Whether or not the unofficial results of the 1973 deer season in Illinois are good or bad apparently depends on whether or not you're a deer.

Everybody else was happy with what apparently was a record harvest with 13,700 deer taken in the six-day season, according to unofficial early tallies.

The 1973 total tops the previous record, set in 1971, by a smashing 3,349. Early reports to the state Department of Conservation indicate the first three days of the season accounted for 9,579 white-tail deer, with another 4,151 taken in the last three days.

Williamson County led in the breakdown of counties with 1,181 deer taken during the six days. The high total there probably largely reflects the opening of Crab Orchard federal refuge lands, Conservation Department spokesmen indicated.

Jack Calhoun, biologist in charge of deer management in the department, stressed, "We're not running a numbers game," and added the

Avscom retirees assured blood

Fred Lilley, benefits and services administrator for the U.S. Army Aviation Systems Command (Avscom), has successfully completed negotiations with the American Red Cross to insure that any Avscom retirees or their spouses may obtain any blood needed for the rest of their lives.

The arrangement, thought to be unique by Avscom, applies to both military and civilian employees who have retired or will retire at the Command.

BURGLARY CHARGED
Janet Lenor, 17, of 1001 Greenwood St., Madison, was arrested at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and charged with burglary. The home of Francis Hooper, 1427 Madison Ave., was entered Feb. 24 and two youths were seen leaving with a television and a tape recorder. When discovered they dropped the items and ran.

department is not necessarily trying to increase the deer kill yearly. Instead, he said, the department is trying to maintain the Illinois herd at a point which will be compatible both to agriculture and forest land, while not eliminating the deer.

Central Illinois, in particular, has been reporting increasing amounts of crop damage from deer, and an increased deer harvest in those counties was desired, Calhoun said.

Statewide, the herd had increased from last year, with the biggest white-tail population explosion in those central counties, which are highly agricultural.

Conservation biologists had not only wanted to see an increased deer harvest — they had expected it. With a record 55,000 plus permits issued there were more hunters afield than ever before. In addition, last spring's floods had driven some deer into upland open areas where they had been easier to hunt. Excellent weather had permitted harvesting of crops before the season, reducing cover.

Now that nearly 14,000 people have a deer in the freezer, there must be one or two who don't know for sure how to cook venison. It can't be treated like the conventional meats from the supermarket but with proper care and treatment, it is both nutritious and delicious, conservation sources say. The department has compiled some recipes for venison which can be obtained on request, by writing the Department of Conservation, Information and Education Section, 606 State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

OUTDOORS IN ILLINOIS The signs of nature help foretell weather

By ART SCHUMANN

According to the weather experts, not including meteorologists, this should have been a mild winter.

"I'm referring to the weather experts who make their predictions based on the number of locusts in late summer, the thickness of fur on caterpillars or the feel of a black bear's fur — preferably a dead black bear."

You may laugh at such weather prediction methods, yet in many instances, they are as accurate as the professional meteorologist's.

Before the so-called professionals came on the scene, one had to rely on two ways of predicting the weather — either the "Farmers' Almanac" or the signs provided by nature. Of course, there was always the college of hard knocks.

I'm not knocking professional meteorologists, but it always seems they provide many variables, leaving themselves a way out. As a result we often have to draw our own conclusions and take our chances. With these kind of circumstances, the sportsman might be better off relying on his knowledge and interpretation of nature's weather signs.

Often you hear people laughing at weather predictions because of aching bones or teeth, when actually that method is just one of several signs provided by nature.

In general, our weather is the result of changes in atmospheric pressure of one sort or another. High pressure usually means good weather, and low pressure is a sign of the opposite. Prevailing conditions, such as dryness or moisture, may cause variations.

I probably shouldn't have mentioned these conditions because I might sound like a meteorologist. Even so, pressures control weather.

Some people become rather accurate weather forecasters by watching their barometers and weather vanes and mentally recording the weather experienced in each instance. One fundamental point to keep in mind is that the prevailing wind is from the west and our weather usually flows from that direction.

Of course, some low pressure area may draw winds from the north or south, off the regular course. There are, however, many people who don't rely on weather vanes and barometers.

Signs of nature, handed down from generation to generation, can tell the knowledgeable what they need to know about atmospheric pressure.

I've already mentioned that low pressure is a sign of bad weather. The low pressure releases captive odors from swamps and woodlands and swallows, for instance, sense the low pressure and seek heavier air by skimming near the surface of the earth or water.

Birds find it difficult to soar in the unstable air and the hawk, for instance, chooses to flap its wings and alight.

When the atmospheric pressure drops, flies cling to your body and soot and branches, previously kept in place by high pressure, fall.

Low pressure also makes distant objects, such as far off hills, look darker and more distinct. It causes old wounds, teeth and rheumatism to ache.

A yellow sunset is also a sign of low pressure and a sign that a storm is on the way. The yellow is the result of the sun shining through damp air, still a ways off. Also, a yellow sunset will likely indicate that cabin chimney smoke falls instead of rising.

If there's a ring around the moon after a yellow sun, snow or rain is on the way. If the ring is clear, the rain or snow may be a day or so away.

There is an old saying which states: "A rainbow in morning, sailor take warning. Rainbow at night, sailor's delight."

That makes sense. A morning rainbow is caused by the light of the rising sun striking clouds to the west, which may mean wet weather is heading in.

A rainbow at night reverses the trend, however, meaning that if the prevailing wind in your area is from the west (as it usually is) then the storm has already passed.

And, anyone having difficulty determining the direction of the wind can tell immediately by watching water fall. Sitting gulls, loons and ducks almost invariably face into the wind.

Dew can also be used for forecasting the weather. If in the late evening there is no sign of dew, it means clouds are forming and the weather may take a wet turn.

But, if the night is calm and clear and the stars show, there is sure to be a good dew which means a good day ahead.

The winds also play their part. A westerly wind is generally a fair wind, while an easterly, especially in fall and winter, usually brings a change in the weather as does a southerly wind with falling pressures.

The outdoor signs, of course, are invaluable to those who spend a great deal of time outdoors. The signs of nature are valuable indicators.

Kennedy backing O'Neill

Dan O'Neill, a candidate for state representative from the 56th District in the Democratic primary, has received the endorsement of retiring Rep. Leland J. Kennedy.

"I think O'Neill is the best candidate to fill the job," Kennedy said. "I hope that the many friends I have made in my 20 years of legislative service will support him."

"I am deeply honored to receive the support of Representative O'Neill commented, "Rep. Kennedy has served this district ably and it is a great vote of confidence to receive his endorsement."

O'Neill, who served a prior term in the Illinois House in 1965-66, also has received support from the Illinois State AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education, the Illinois Education Association, Voters Organized for Independent Community Effort and Alton Township Democratic committee.

Kennedy said he and his wife, Eileen, will host a public coffee reception for all 20th District congressional and 56th District legislative candidates March 9 at the Alton Knights of Columbus Hall from 1 to 4 p.m.

Family of six fire victims; aid is sought

Aid was being sought this week for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Snyder whose home and possessions, including birthday gifts for two boys who celebrated their birthdays yesterday, were destroyed in a fire at their home on Chateau Slough Road this week.

The blaze drove the family from the home at 4 a.m. Sunday and gutted the five-room frame residence, leaving only part of the roof and part of the kitchen wall. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder (Daniel and Donna) have four children, Carol, 16, James, 12, John, 10, and Tracy, 7. James and John had birthdays yesterday.

Persons wishing to contribute household furnishings, linen, curtains, appliances and clothing may call 797-0999 or 452-4168. Clothing needed includes boys' sizes 12, 10 and 8, and girls' 14, as well as ladies' sizes 16 and men's size 14M.

The family now is living with Mrs. Snyder's mother, Mrs. Ruby Harper, 2328 W. 24th St.

The fire was believed to have been caused either by a cat knocking over a kerosene lantern which the family was using because lightning struck the house a week ago, knocking out the fuse box and shutting off the power.

Mrs. Harper was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday for treatment of a hand burn suffered in an accident while cooking.

Travelogue Monday at Venice library

A three film travelogue will be shown at the Venice Public Library at 7:30 p.m. Monday, according to Mrs. Sybil Robb, librarian.

The films are entitled "Manitoba: Every Man's Wilderness," "Once Upon a Wilderness" and "Yosemite National Park." Admission is free. Mrs. Robb added, and the public is invited.

Cut speed limit

The Missouri speed limit will decrease Monday to a maximum of 55 miles-per-hour, a speed adopted by Illinois earlier this month. The reduced speed limit was suggested by President Nixon and was enforced by a threat that states not complying would be in jeopardy of having all federal grants halted.

Whitsell shows income records

Louis E. Whitsell, supervisor of Nameoki Township and currently seeking re-election as the District 38 member of the Madison County Board, this week released copies of his 1973 tax forms showing $6,606 in income from Nameoki Township and $7,240 received from Madison County.

Commenting on the campaign related to the March 19 primary election, Whitsell, a Democrat, said:

"The position of County Board member requires a certain amount of dignity. Regardless of who wins the primary election, I will remain in office until after the general election—December 1974."

"In order for me or anyone else to be able to accomplish anything on the County Board, we must command the respect of the other 28 members."

"Name calling such as, Whitsell-crats, King Whitsell or Loo-EE Bird, or twisted information about my income can only result in destroying my personal integrity and lowering the dignity of the office."

"I will not let your mind be poisoned by the darts some people throw. It is easy to condemn and play a dirty game, but if we allow these people to forever ridicule, then the position of County Board member will be destroyed."

"The issue is not whether I will be re-elected or not. Regardless of who is elected, we must be able to convince the other 28 County Board members to vote for our project and that we are honorable, trustworthy officials."

"I have accomplished this for my constituency, and I only hope that all elected County Board members can do the same," Whitsell asserted.

"The reports from my opposition regarding my income are false. There is only one answer to these acquisitions and that is my W-2 tax forms, which I am sending copies of to newspapers."

"As County Board members, we are limited by state law as to our duties and powers."

"Many of the programs outlined by my opposition are local improvements and not the duties of the County Board."

"There are many elected officials in our county who each have their duties described by state law. No other official has the authority to tell another official how to do his job."

"The Supervisor of Assessment chose to re-assess Nameoki Township in 1971. The County Board has no authority to tell him what, how or when to do his job."

"His re-assessments could have resulted in lowering our taxes as well as raising them. When he did increase them, there were only two things to do. One was to file an appeal with the Board of Review; the other was to hire our own lawyer."

"To save the expense of each resident hiring a lawyer, we organized a non-profit tax protesters' group to hire one lawyer for all."

"Many home owners got results from the Board of Review and many are still waiting for our lawsuit to be heard."

"This is the first time we have ever filed a tax suit, regardless of what my opposition says, and we will continue with our suit."

long after the election, if necessary—regardless of who is elected.

"My ten-point program for progress in the future is as follows:

"1. To develop a model sanitary sewer program for our four-township area that will set a precedent for the rest of the county."

"2. To continue economic development and orderly growth of the county through subdivision control and building and zoning regulations."

"3. To continue to develop recreation areas throughout the county."

"4. To work for the re-appointment of Nelson Hagnauer as the chairman of the County Board. Because of his outstanding leadership, our county has progressed tremendously."

"5. To support county health services."

"6. To continue programs for the aged, disadvantaged and mentally retarded."

"7. To encourage the sheriff's department to continually upgrade the law enforcement of our county."

"8. To organize the cooperation of federal, state and local governments to attempt to solve our major problems of District 26, such as drainage, sewerage, law enforcement and other needed improvements."

"9. To serve as a full-time county legislator, not only for my district, but for the entire Madison County."

"10. To represent the residents of the county as a whole by organizing other government entities, informing the public and coordinating the activities of all, regardless of the problems or political pressures."

"Many of these programs are already in progress today, due to joint cooperation of the Madison County Board."

"Some of the County Board members go along for the ride and some are active and progressive. Many times, the more active and progressive we are, the more subject to criticism we become."

"Let my record speak for itself, and my goals for the future be your only concern when you choose your County Board member for the next four years," Whitsell concluded.

"Let my record speak for itself, and my goals for the future be your only concern when you choose your County Board member for the next four years," Whitsell concluded.

The award has been established by Miss Knight to give official recognition to worthy officers of the county who have served citizens of their area in cooperation with the Passport Office.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES M. LEMP, who were married at First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue. The bride is the former Miss Beverly Earlene Bellman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Bellman, 2267 State St. (Ollis Photography)

First Baptist scene of Lemp-Bellman nuptials

Miss Beverly Earlene Bellman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Bellman, 2267 State St., and James Michael Lemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patrick Lemp, 2316 Grand Ave., were united in marriage on Feb. 23 at the First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue. White gladiolus bouquets interspersed with greenery decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Ray Eitelman.

Karen MacDonough presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Carolyn Mih, who sang "O Promise Me" and "More."

For her wedding, the bride chose a traditional white gown of silk organza designed along Victorian lines. The high ring collar was created of imported French lace and lace was repeated on the Empire bodice to form a V design.

Long full bishop sleeves, accented with matching lace, were etched with iridescent sequins and tightly cuffed at the wrists. Her "A-line" skirt of organza terminated in a full chapel length train.

She wore a cluster of imported net petals embroidered with pearls and sequins to secure a long cathedral veil of bridal illusion and she carried a nosegay of white daisies and pink Sweetheart roses.

Miss Carolyn Bellman, a sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and Kathy Wilson was the bridesmaid.

They were gowning in aqua organza full length dresses.

Pack 28 wins top recruiting award

Club Pack 28, sponsored by Parkview PTA, is one of two packs to be declared winners of a special award in the 1973 "Invitation to Adventure" competition, involving 58 packs in the Cahokia Mounds Boy Scout Council area.

The Parkview Pack's victory was announced by Suzanne Brooks, district committeewoman, at the annual Blue and Gold banquet at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall in Piquette Beach.

"Invitation to Adventure" is a year-around contest designed to help recruit boys into scouting.

To mark the occasion, Pack 28 was presented a recruiting plaque, a membership leader's tieclasp for Cubmaster Marvin Meng and a limited edition of the "History of the American Revolution."

The latter award was presented by the Cubs to Mrs. Agnes Fryntko, Parkview principal, for placement in the school library.

Only Cub Pack 48 in the Illini District received the gift volume with Pack 28 for recording the highest percentage of growth during the year.

Awards presented at the Blue and Gold banquet by Assistant Cubmaster Donald Wiggins, included: Richard Lovins and Vince Adams, bobcat pins; Marvin Meng, bear badge; Greg Boerman, one-year pin; Mike Carnahan and Jim Wiggins, one gold and two silver arrows; Shawn Allen, one gold arrow; Rodney Stover, Keith Gray, Doug Thornburg, Kenneth Patterson, assistant denner braids; Chris Tanase and Jeff Welborn, retiring denner bar; and Mike Bellepanti, retiring assistant denner.

The highest award a Cub Scout can earn, the "Arrow of Light," was received by David Carnahan and Martin Rose. The award winners presented miniature gold "Arrow of Light" pins to their mothers.

After a potluck dinner, Harry Monte presented a magic show. Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Fryntko and Mr. Mark Yehling were guests.

3 fires Tuesday

Granite City firemen responded to three fires Tuesday, the first at 8:30 a.m. at the Nestle Co. plant where trash in the truck of Tom Bailey caught fire. Bailey dumped the load and the fire was extinguished. Damage to the truck was estimated at $100. Firemen were on the scene 45 minutes.

At 9:50 a.m. Tuesday, firefighters were called to 1800 block of Ferguson Ave. where a carburetor backfire started a fire which caused about $600 damage to the 1966 car of Edward Jones. They were there 25 minutes.

The final call Tuesday was at 10:30 p.m. at 3008 E. 23rd St., the Ed Rich Apartments. A pan left on the stove in the apartment of Edward Kube started a fire which caused $100 damage, firemen reported.

Chouteau town garage ready for bidding

Specifications for construction of a new Chouteau Township garage are available for bidders, the township's board of auditors was told at its meeting Monday night.

Copies of the specifications were presented to the board and were approved for bidding. Bids are to be opened at a special meeting of the board Monday, March 18, at 7 p.m.

The specifications divide the work into six proposals, one for supplying the metal building, another for erecting the facility, and others for installation of a chain link fence around the property, for plumbing and for electrical work.

Patricia Polley, town clerk, invited contractors and other firms to obtain copies of the specifications from John Rapp of Filipo Associates, Alton.

The board received a proposal from Union Electric Co. estimating electric heat for the proposed building would cost $361 per year. The company said it propane now were selling for 20 cents per gallon, the costs of heating with it or electricity would be equal, but propane now is selling in the mid-30-cent range, according to the company's proposal.

The question of the necessity of a township tax collector was raised. Auditors agreed to consider the question before preparing the new township budget.

William Thoele, a District 16 candidate for the Madison County Board charged Monday that 20 per cent of the township's fund is wasted on a tax collector, although the county has assumed the collection of local taxes.

Walter "Dick" Sparks township supervisor, contested Thoele's figures at the meeting and added that as supervisor he only votes in the event of a tie and he was not responsible for the township having a tax collector.

the school year ending June 30. Pier and Davinroy said the district also has a $200,000 fund shortage resulting from borrowing last year, and a $200,000 obligation.

Frank Reideberger Jr., Venice Township assessor who said he was speaking as a citizen and taxpayer, said the questions the need to borrow $375,000 to operate the rest of the school year.

He noted that school officials said last week that a savings of approximately $129,000 in educational fund expenditures had been achieved during past several years through reductions in the teaching staff, supplies and materials.

If the district borrowed $200,000 to get by last year, and since has reduced its debt by $129,000, why should it need to borrow $375,000, he asked.

Reideberger also noted that the $200,000 borrowed last year has since been repaid, and the $200,000 in working cash fund bonds are being retired by a separate tax levy which, he contended, does not make it a part of the district's educational fund.

Davinroy maintained, however, that the $200,000 borrowed last year "came out of the top" of 1973 tax distributions and amounts in that amount for this year's operations. This shortage also is shorted against the remaining amount of money needed for the remainder of the year, he said.

The working cash fund also is shorted against the remaining amount of money needed for the remainder of the year, he said.

Insurance portfolio revised

A new portfolio of insurance policies tailored to changing economic and social factors has been introduced to the public by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's sales force.

"This 1974 portfolio," reports E. Ray Gisham, district sales manager of Metropolitan's office at 3703 Nameoki Road, "reflects the kaleidoscope of social and economic patterns reshaping our society."

"Our new sales portfolio, for example, offers products that provide higher interest guarantees. It offers the insurance-buying public generally lower premium rates."

In many cases, it offers improved 20-year interest-adjusted cost indexes.

Gisham said the "innovative response to today's inflation" is a cost-of-living insurance rider. Available with certain new whole life contracts, the rider is designed to increase the face amount of a policy in direct proportion to rising prices as measured by the consumer price index.

For an additional $1 a year, per $1,000 of face amount, the rider provides the policyholder with a special dividend option to purchase additional insurance to accommodate an accelerating cost of living.

"Perhaps one of the most powerful pressures for social change," Gisham said, "has been the women's movement. Certainly the women's market is, in our business, one of the most important."

One of the new features of our new portfolio — the three-year age setback for premium rates on women, for example, should prove responsive to women's needs."

The setback for premium rates recognizes that women usually live longer than men. Where formerly Metropolitan's insurance premiums for men and women of a given age were the same, in most cases a woman now will be charged less than a man three years younger.

A new rider providing for decreasing term insurance as an insured's wife is also available, and may be added to any life or endowment policy on her husband's life.

Liberalizations in underwriting limits will make standard rates.

The company also raised top underwriting acceptance limits to permit coverage of persons with a risk factor as high as 2,000 percent of standard mortality.

In other words, the possibility of a person being uninsurable has been reduced, in part, as a result of advances in medical science, which Metropolitan Life takes into account," he concluded.

No part of Illinois except three counties along the Ohio River.

Stanley A. Changnon Jr., executive vice president of the Illinois State Water Survey, Urbana, said damaging hail fell on 57 days during the March-October growing season. June storms accompanied by hail, he said, were the most frequent, destroying soybeans, corn, gardens, truck crops and fruit over wide areas.

BOY HIT BY AUTO

James Beakel, 7, of 1934 Benton St., was struck by an auto in the 1300 block of Niedringhaus Avenue at 8:55 p.m. Tuesday. The motorist in a blue auto sped from the scene after the accident. The boy was not hurt seriously enough to require hospital treatment.

FACES FEDERAL CHARGE

Charles Birmingham, 69, of East St. Louis, was arrested by Granite City police Wednesday morning on a federal warrant charging theft from mails. He allegedly stole a pay voucher from the 1700 block of Delmar Avenue Jan. 9. He was released to postal authorities.

Per diem, assessment, collection issues cited

By DONALD C. REA
Chairman, Democrats for Patrick Committee

County Board District 26 Chairman of the Democrats for Patrick Committee 1 would like to respond to an article by Louis Whitsell. He saw fit to make many charges, some serious in nature and some ridiculous. Now is the time to set the record straight.

He said, "Last week Harry Briggs, former township supervisor, and Ed Patrick came to my office to dig dirt. Evidently the only thing they could think of was my income. But I knew it would be dirty and half true when they came out with it."

To begin, I went to Mr. Whitsell's office with Ed Patrick. Mr. Whitsell and I went to his office, not to "dig dirt," but to obtain correct information.

We found that for 17 months—May 1972 through August 1973—Whitsell received from his elected offices:

Per diem from county — $10,330.
Travel expenses from county — $1,220.
Salary from township — $9,491.

Travel expenses from township — $1,599.
This is a grand total of — $23,124.

Mr. Whitsell received $23,124 from his elected offices while holding down a full-time job. These figures were not drawn from thin air; they were obtained from official township and county records.

If these records are half-truths, then he is accusing the township and county records of being wrong. If these records contain "dirt," they must contain something he is aware of and that we overlooked.

Township expense records are not broken down but are given only as a lump sum, indicating mileage expenses only, not destinations. They do not show where Mr. Whitsell went to collect these expense reimbursements.

He stated, "One of my opponents has even labeled me as 'king of the County Board.' The fact is Mr. Whitsell was not called 'king of the County Board' to have been transferred from Belleville Memorial Hospital to Cardinal Glennon Hospital last week, while a 14-year-old Johnston City boy is reported suffering the disease at the same St. Louis hospital.

knowing it, more severe cases can prove fatal. The disease apparently is becoming better known as more doctors learn more about it and how to recognize the symptoms, it was reported.

St. Elizabeth Hospital reported it has received no unusual number of calls concerning the disease, although such inquiries probably would be made to physicians, particularly pediatricians.

A Belleville child was reported to have been transferred from Belleville Memorial Hospital to Cardinal Glennon Hospital last week, while a 14-year-old Johnston City boy is reported suffering the disease at the same St. Louis hospital.

$85,000 payment to GC farm hit by hail

Illinois was hit harder by destructive hailstorms in 1973 than any state, with crop losses estimated in excess of $40 million, George Thiem, manager of the Crop Insurance Bureau, reported Wednesday. And in Madison County, hailstorm was the worst in the state.

Indemnity payments by insurance companies for hail injury to crops alone totaled $2,754,000, Thiem said, and figure covers less than half the damage.

The statewide loss ratios—losses to premium income—were 91.59 per cent, which means that most companies had to dip into their reserves to pay claims.

This is unusual, for Illinois hail frequency and damage historically has been surpassed by Iowa and states farther west.

Broken windows, battered greenhouses, damaged roofs, automobiles and property are generally protected by windstorm policies, but crop hail insurance is special coverage written annually.

Largest loss payment of record—in excess of $50,000—went to a local soybean and wheat grower, Ralph G. Buske of Granite City, following the destructive Aug. 12 hailstorm. A neighbor lost his entire crop—550 acres of soybeans—and collected $52,500 from his insurer.

"It hit us about 3 p.m. and came from the southwest," says Buske, a tenant on a fertile 892-acre farm.

"It began with rain, and then marbled hail and finally chunks of mixed ice and snow up to ten's egg size came down. About 40 miles an hour wind came with it."

Green pods had formed on the soybeans and the hail beat leaves, stem and pods into the mud for a near total loss. Buske's two-thirds interest in

Leon Hudson earns unique honor

Leon Hudson, 74, Shirwin Drive, Arlington Heights, who has earned numerous awards in the watch repairing field, has received what he considers his proudest honor, certification as an Accutron watch technician by the Bulova Watch Co., New York.

Mr. Hudson is a brother of proud of his accomplishment because he is the only deaf person in the United States to receive the certification.

Mr. Hudson is a brother to Virgil and Jim Hudson, owners of Hudson Jewelers, 19th and State streets, Bellemore Village Shopping Center and Edwardsville. He is employed in the downtown Granite City store.

He has attended several workshops offered by the Bulova Co. and last year spent a week at the Bulova Accutron Center in Chicago for training in Accutron servicing.

Recently, he completed an intensive two-week course in St.

Louis which was followed by a two-hour written examination and a practical examination, both of which were graded in New York. Minimum scores of 85 per cent were required for passage.

Last week, he received a plaque showing a permanent certification number given him for passage of the tests. A Bulova representative personally congratulated him upon his receiving of the plaque.

It was noted he is the only certified Accutron technician in this area and is one of the few in the St. Louis metropolitan area who passed the advanced training.

During his training sessions, Mr. Hudson was accompanied by his wife, Mary Lou Hudson, who interpreted for him.

The Accutron watch utilizes a tuning fork and transistorized circuit rather than the conventional time keeping mechanism.

Lawyers favor Jones, Maucker

Two candidates for appellate judge of the 5th Appellate District have been recommended in a poll among lawyers on the qualifications of the candidates. Results were announced Tuesday by Richard Melchior, chairman of the Illinois State Bar Association's Committee on Judicial Advisory Polls.

Polls were conducted on all candidates where there is a contest in the primary or general election.

Democrats Robert Maucker and Charles Jones were recommended by the Democrats voting, the Republicans voting, and the total lawyers voting. Democrat Von Allen Carlisle was not recommended by the Democrats voting; he was recommended by the Republicans voting but was not recommended by the total lawyers voting.

Republican Lehman Krause was not recommended by the Democrats voting, the Republicans voting or the total lawyers voting.

A total of 362 participated in the poll in the District; of those voting, 152 were Democrats, 126 were Republicans and 84 were unaffiliated.

Melchior said the purpose is to "make a conscientious analysis of the qualifications of the candidates as viewed by their own colleagues, who know them best, and to make the results available to the voting public."

He said the "comparative ease with which judges may remain in office makes it imperative that only able candidates be nominated in the first place."

Lennon stressed that the vote of "not recommended" for a judge does not reflect on the ability of the individual as a lawyer, but merely indicates that his colleagues, for various reasons, did not wish to recommend him for the judicial office sought.

He said the candidates were rated on such points as: Has he adequate legal ability? Has he adequate legal experience? Is he courteous and considerate? Would he be industrious and prompt in the performance of judicial duties? Have you confidence in his integrity?

Engineering contract ok'd

The Granite City Council voted Monday night to hire an Edwardsville engineering firm to provide "special engineering services" for installation of safety improvements at four Madison Avenue intersections under the federal TOPICS program (Traffic Operations Program for the Improvement and Capacity of Streets).

By a vote of 12 to 2, with all 14 council members present, the aldermen approved a resolution authorizing Mayor Paul Schuler and City Clerk Robert Stevens to enter into an engineering contract with Flagg, Scheibel, Sherbert & Associates of Edwardsville.

Additional engineering services are needed, council members were told, to work with state engineers in improvement of new traffic signal systems at the Madison Avenue intersections of 27th, 23rd and 20th streets and Niedringhaus Avenue.

Monroe Brewer, city engineer, has been accepted by the State Highway Department as resident engineer for the project which is to be built at a cost of $316,000 in a joint city-state-federal program.

Alderman Sam Whitmer criticized the contract with "an outside firm," noting that "we have local engineers who pay taxes here and can do just as good a job." A week earlier, the council had turned down a proposed contract with Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab of Granite City.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Whitmer and Alderman Frank Greenwald voted against the contract with the Edwardsville firm.

Later in the meeting, Whitmer asked Brewer if the engineering rates of the Edwardsville firm were the same as those proposed by the Granite City engineers.

"No. They were a little higher," Brewer replied.

Novosel-Cowan wedding at St. John Lutheran

St. John Lutheran Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Kathie Ann Cowan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cowan Sr., 2556 Westmoreland Drive, and Nicholas Mark Novosel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novosel, 2566 Spaulding Ave., on Feb. 23.

The Rev. Samuel Boda performed the double ring ceremony at 6 p.m. before an altar centered with a bouquet of white mums, carnations and baby breath and two urns filled with white mums and pom poms. John Weber of Florissant, Mo., presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. Rudy Diak as she sang, "Lord Look At The Two of Us" and "Heavenly Father."

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Cowan wore a bridal gown of Chantilly lace created with a molded bodice, featuring a Sabrina neckline and long fitted sleeves that formed points at the wrists.

Her dress was designed with a natural fitted waist and a bouffant skirt of lace tiers that fell gently into a cathedral length train.

She chose a Juliet cap attached to a triple tiered fingertip veil, edged in matching lace, and she held a cascade of white roses and baby breath centered with a white rose corsage.

Maid of honor Miss Kim Marie Cowan, a sister of the bride, selected a white gown under taffeta dress, designed in an Empire style.

Renaissance sleeves were set into the fitted bodice made with a high collar and trimmed with white Venise lace inserted with narrow blue satin ribbon. Satin ribbon encircled the high rise waist and formed a bow at the back with long streamers.

Miss Christine Diak, a cousin of the bride, Misses Sally King, Nora King, Renee Moore and Kathy Gusewelle, bridesmaids, were gown in identically styled frocks as the honor attendant, but in a rainbow of colors, including orchid, mint green, pink, aqua and apricot.

Each girl wore a white spun straw picture hat with matching satin bands and long streamers and carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and baby breath in a shade to match her dress.

The flower girl, Rita Novosel, a sister of the groom, wore a yellow frock, similar to the adult attendants' dresses. She carried a basket festooned with yellow bows and streamers and filled with pastel colored flower petals.

John Raymond Cowan, a brother of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Joseph Novosel Jr., the groom's brother, served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Mike and Joe Novosel, brothers of the groom, Pete Nichols, Rick Crites, Randy Parker and Kenneth L. Cowan Jr., the bride's brother.

Mrs. Cowan, mother of the bride, selected a full length double knit gown in a soft pink shade. A pink beaded and sequin trim accented the bodice and marked the Empire waistline.

A reception was given at the Polish Hall in Madison immediately following the ceremony.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The bride is attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and her husband is employed at Granite City Steel Co. They will reside in Granite City.

MISS CAROLYN JEAN REEVES, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reeves, 2033 Washington Ave., are announcing her engagement to Richard Steven Gerlack, U.S. Navy. A May wedding is planned.

Gerlack-Reeves engagement

The engagement of Miss Carolyn Jean Reeves and Richard Steven Gerlack is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reeves, 2033 Washington Ave.

Parents of the prospective groom are Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Gerlack, 1707 Edison Ave. Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School.

Energy conservation vital, BPW told

A patriotic theme to mark the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington and a program on energy conservation were among the highlights of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club world affairs and International Federation Week dinner.

Fifty attended the event at Charles's Restaurant. Silhouettes representing the two former presidents were used on the dinner tables, together with red, white and blue appointments. The officers' table held a large tricolor hat as its centerpiece, arranged with red candles in white holders.

Mrs. Pauline Weir was in charge of the program, including a 20-minute film, entitled "Energy Management: The Vital Difference."

The movie detailed the critical need for energy conservation in business and industry. Packages of informative material concerning lowering of energy consumption by the individual were distributed.

Preceding the dinner, Mrs. Vernice Wortman led the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Shirley Adams sang the National Anthem and Mrs. Ruth Canner, chaplain, read the club collect.

In observance of the International Federation of BPW Clubs Week, a skit was presented based on the theme "Bus Stop, or What's International Women's Year All About?"

Performing in the playlet were Mrs. Sylvia Wright, Miss Frances Lynch, Mrs. Kathryn Pomeroy and Mrs. Helen Christich.

The annual observance marks the formation of the International Federation in 1930 at Geneva, Switzerland, when women attended from 16 countries, Mrs. Weir explained.

The organization's first president was Lena Madeline Phillips of the United States. Currently, more than 46 nations are represented in the federation, the chairman said.

Two special guests at the dinner were Miss Ann Henderson, a Granite City School senior, and Mrs. Linda Givens, the local club's "Young Careerist" candidate.

Miss Henderson reviewed events at a Youth World conference held annually on the campus of SIU at Carbondale, which she attended last fall as a representative of the Granite City Club.

Mrs. Givens spoke on "My Priorities and Goals," a presentation she will deliver at the BPW District 14 spring conference March 19 at Fischer's Restaurant, Belleville, in competition with "Young Careerist" nominees from other district groups.

She is an upper primary teacher at Nameoki Grade School.

Mrs. Lil Marzluft, BPW president, conducted the business meeting and announced that Mrs. Aina

Holland, Young Careerist chairman for the Illinois Federation of BPW Clubs, will be guest speaker at the March 10 district luncheon at 1:30 p.m.

Reservations for the district event are due Monday and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Marzluft at 452-1337, or Mrs. Weir at 452-7529.

Featured with the guest speaker and Young Careerist contest will be the Individual Development Course Speak-Off and judging of the best scrapbook and "club of the year."

Granite City club members also endorsed Miss Evelyn Bowles (D), a candidate for the office of Madison County Clerk. She has been a member of the Edwardsville BPW Club for 24 years and has served as deputy county clerk for the past 12 years.

BPW members were encouraged to attend a book review and luncheon, scheduled March 16 at 1 p.m. at Miss Bruno's, 310 Vandalia St., Collinsville.

The speaker will be Mrs. James Stuart of Granite City, who will review the book, "Women in History." Reservations costing $5 per person can be made with Miss Lynch at 876-6564, it was announced.

Several members reported plans to attend the Granite City BPW Club's dinner tonight, when Miss Ann Post, chapter chairman for the Illinois BPW Federation, will be the principal speaker.

In conjunction with current legislative sessions and programs, Mrs. Marzluft announced a special workshop will take place from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Saturday at the Collinsville Building and Loan office on East Belt Road.

Staff personnel from the Equal Rights Amendment Central office, Chicago, will conduct the workshop, she said. The program is open to the public and there will be no charge.

Mrs. Marzluft said. She added, however, that participants are being asked to provide their own sack lunch. Eleven Granite City club members will attend the National Legislative Conference which starts Wednesday at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C., it was announced.

Highlighting the conference will be a tea at the White House with Mrs. Richard M. Nixon at 3 p.m. Friday, March 8. Local delegates will meet for breakfast with U.S. Senators Charles Percy (R) and Adlai Stevenson III (D).

Appointments also have been arranged for additional meetings with the two senators from Illinois and with Congressman Melvin Price (D), East St. Louis.

World Affairs Committee members assisting in the dinner arrangements were Mrs. Christich, co-chairman, Mrs. Madama Groshong, Mrs. Helen Law, Mrs. Maxine Butler, Mrs. Beulah Tripp, Mrs. Vyvienne Durbine, Miss Lynch, Mrs. Pomeroy and Mrs. Wright.

Debra Spann is married to Ronnie Buckingham

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Debra Spann and Ronnie Buckingham in a candlelight ceremony on Feb. 23 in the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Margaret L. Buckingham, 1648 Olive St. He is the son of the late Walt Buckingham.

Officiating at the 6:30 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Terry Bell, pastor of the Vaughn Hill Church of Christ, Wood River. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker of Affton, Mo.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white bridal satin lavishly accented with delicate white lace. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Miss LaVon Spann, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was Herman Stern of Belleville, an uncle of the groom.

Rhonda Buckingham, a daughter of the groom, served as flower girl. Following the service, 42 guests attended a reception given in the Buckingham home.

MR. AND MRS. ALAN F. NOVICH. They were married in a candlelight setting at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Collinsville. She is the former Miss Rosemary Muniz, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muniz of Collinsville.

Rosemary Muniz becomes Mrs. Alan F. Novich

Miss Rosemary Muniz and Alan F. Novich exchanged wedding vows in a candlelight setting on Feb. 8 at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Collinsville.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening was the Rev. Michael Kuse.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muniz, 812 St. Clair Ave., Collinsville. Mr. Novich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novich, formerly of Madison, now reside at 4417 Cookson Road, Fairmont City.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a full length white Chantilly lace gown.

Long Victorian sleeves were set into the fitted waistline forming a point at the front of the full bouffant skirt.

Her skirt was fashioned of tiers of lace ruffles, scalloped on the edges, extending into a chapel length train.

A lace headpiece accented with a satin bow secured her matching lace and she held a bouquet of white lilacs and purple statice.

Mrs. Barbara Kuhl, a sister of the bride, from Highland, Ill., served as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Mary Lee Muniz, a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Nancy Caminiti and Mrs. Kathleen Baldus, the bride's cousin.

The attendants were dressed alike. They wore dark white lace bodices created with high collars and Queen-Anne sleeves and were accented with purple velvet cording and Empire style waistlines.

The long skirts were made of purple velvet and each attendant wore a purple velvet Juliet cap to hold in place a nosegay of lavender lilies festooned with long satin streamers.

Attending the groom as best man was Bob Sheroky of Troy, Ill. Ray Muniz, Kenny Kupinski and Phillip Mahoney were groomsmen and David Muniz acted as ringbearer.

Preceding the service, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne (Georgia) Bradshaw sang "Somehow My Love," "One Hand, One Heart," "We Walk With God" and "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

Cindy and Mike Kuhl, a niece and nephew of the bride, were attired as a miniature bride and ringbearer.

Guests were received by the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Novich at a reception held at the church hall.

The bride is employed as a telephone operator for Illinois Bell Telephone Co. Her husband works as a clerk at the FACT Terminal of Penn-Central Transportation in Fairmont City.

The ballet will be performed in concert with the Belleville Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Loren Torno.

Two local girls, Taina Kilponen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kilponen, Rural Route One, Arlington Heights, and Elizabeth Wilkins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George T. Wilkins, 1204 Twenty-seventh, will repeat their performance in "The Skater's Gathering."

The dance depicts a series of incidents on a winter afternoon at a skating event. The dancers strive to give the impression they are wearing skates.

Mrs. Hudgens, co-owner with her husband, Robert, of Bob's Tavern, 21st and Adams streets, is being assisted in the 1974 fund raising drive by Mrs. Anne Reznack, whose husband, Victor, owns Victor's Tavern, 2001 Illinois Ave.

Certificates of appreciation were accepted by John DeCoursey, institutional representative, for Glen and Mary Ann Walker, outgoing cubmaster and den leader.

If gas pains persist, try Volkswagen.

A VW goes a long way in relieving gas problems—by getting terrific gas mileage. It also relieves those little headaches—by needing points of oil instead of quarts. And not needing antifreeze because of its air-cooled engine.

Plus, it gets rid of nervous upticks due to owning a new car. With Volkswagen's Owner's Security Blanket, you're provided with the best care any car can have—in sickness and in health. The fact is that Volkswagen can cure lots of problems that most cars can't.

Maybe you should take two.

Lenten program at Central Christian

Central Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), 2020 Johnson Road, has begun its celebration of the Lenten season and two services are to be held each week through Easter.

In addition to the regular Sunday morning service, the church is holding contemporary services of contemplation each Wednesday evening during Lent, beginning at 7:45.

Also on Wednesdays, the church is offering a course on Christian Yoga, led by Mrs. Joyce Mitchell. In sessions starting at 12:30 p.m., participants will be striving to learn new forms of concentration for Christianity.

according to Dr. L. Jim Anthis, pastor of the church.

The Sanctuary Choir, under the direction of Joseph Hanson and Mrs. Judy Owens, will present Easter in Music at the morning worship celebration, March 31, at 10:45 a.m. The music will be from the musical production, "Celebrate Life."

One of the highlights of the six-week program will be an authentic Jewish Seder dinner to be held on Maundy Thursday, April 11. "Using a traditional Jewish service and symbols, and being led by a member of the Jewish faith, the community, through this experience, will understand its historical heritage of the Last Supper of Christ. As Jews observed the Jewish Seder, so the church will observe the Seder," commented the pastor.

On Easter Sunday morning, the congregation will join in a contemporary celebration of the Resurrection. A continental breakfast will be served, followed by the various educational classes.

The Easter worship celebration will take place at 10:45 a.m., highlighted by a baptismal service. Dr. Anthis explained. He invited the public to participate in all Lenten activities at the local church.

EASTER SEAL CHILD for this area, Colleen Bethel, 4 years old, of Granite City, is pictured with Jim Bolten, chairman of the annual campaign to aid children.

Maryville PTA bowling dinner

Maryville School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a bowling party and dinner Sunday afternoon as a fund raising project. The event is open to the public, PTA President Mrs. Kay McCrone announced today.

Tickets, available at a cost of $3 per person, entitle a participant to three games of bowling followed with a buffet dinner at Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Namecki Road.

Interested persons may purchase tickets from any sixth grade student at Maryville School, or by calling Mrs. Sue Gasparovic, at 931-9629.

Venice youth aids Variety Club drive

Ronald Martin, a 16-year-old Venice High School student, voluntarily canvassed his neighborhood this week and collected $14 for donation to the St. Louis Variety Club's 8th annual "Crusade for Forgotten Children."

The youth, who resides at 516 Third St., Venice, is a member of the organization. His effort this year marked the fourth consecutive time he has served as a volunteer for the fund raising drive.

New ruling issued on use of maiden name

In another new opinion dealing with women's rights in name, Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott this week advised Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett that a woman who retains her maiden name after marriage does not have to change her Illinois driver's license registration (except to report any change of legal address).

The opinion parallels another given by Scott two weeks ago in which he ruled that a woman who retains her maiden name after marriage need not re-register under her married surname to be qualified to vote.

Scott stressed again, however, that a woman must "exclusively, consistently and nonfraudulently" use her maiden name in all other matters. The new opinion is one example of that consistency, Scott said.

secretary of state's office only when there is an actual change in name. In the case of a divorce, for example, a woman who assumes her maiden name or a former name would be required to notify Secretary Howlett's office of that change.

But a woman who retains her maiden name after marriage, Scott noted, need not notify the secretary's office.

Scott cited his previous opinion and underscored the fact that there is no Illinois statute which requires a woman to change her name to her husband's surname after marriage.

In the earlier opinion, Scott emphasized that a woman who retains her maiden name after marriage must consistently use her maiden name in all other matters. The new opinion is one example of that consistency, Scott said.

Events at St. Peter's

"A Lenten School in Christian Living" will highlight the season of Lent at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, 218 S. Street, Cleveland Boulevard, the Rev. Robert Kettelhut, pastor, announced today.

The special series will begin Sunday evening and continue for four sessions providing opportunities for all age levels in fellowship, education and worship, the pastor said.

Each program will start at 5:30 p.m. with a potluck supper followed with classes for children, a youth seminar and two adult seminars. A worship service for all church members will conclude the evening's activities.

The youth seminar will be under the direction of Tony Jacobs, student associate, who will use films and discussion material with the theme, "Love Is..."

Sunday. This Sunday, the beginning of the Lenten season, the sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated. Banners depicting the various sections of the Lord's Prayer will be hung in the church.

A "renewal of thorns," brought back from the Holy Land many years ago and used during Lent thereafter, will be hung above the altar cross. The crown of thorns is made from the same type of bush that is believed was used at the time of Jesus' crucifixion.

In keeping with the prayer theme, Pastor Kettelhut will conduct a two-hour Prayer Retreat at the church on Sunday evening, March 31, from 7 to 9 p.m. as part of the church's Lenten observance. An in depth study and experience into the meaning and power of prayer is being planned.

Mrs. Stuart visits in California

Mrs. Guyla Stuart, 2549 Center St., has returned from a trip to Los Angeles, Calif. where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Beverly (Kellam) Marshall, formerly of Granite City.

While on vacation, Mrs. Stuart, her daughter and grandson, Sean, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Mary Pershall) Thullen who now reside in San Diego.

Enroute home, Mrs. Stuart visited with her sister, Mrs. Helen Bridgeman in Denver, Colo., for several weeks.

ALL THE FISH YOU CAN EAT FRIDAY, $1.49 AT GRANTS

Robert Hutcheson, organist-choromaster, will conduct one of the two adult seminars on the theme, "Hymns-History, How and Who." The other adult seminar will be coordinated by Rev. Kettelhut, with guest leaders from the community and surrounding area each Sunday. The topic will be "The Local Church in God's Mission."

"It's a family affair," said the Rev. Kettelhut. "We have planned something of importance for all members and their families. Interested persons from the community are also invited to attend."

The Lord's Prayer, "the prayer that spans the world," will be the theme for the morning worship services during Lent at 10:15 a.m. each

Another important part of the congregation's Lenten observance will come during the morning worship on March 24 when the special spring missionary offering, "One Great Hour of Sharing," will be received.

The offering by the congregation helps the needy around the world who suffer from hunger, disease and many tragedies, the minister explained. It is in addition to the church's regular Lenten offering which this year will help support Eden Seminary and the Holyton Children's Home.

Girl Scouts mark Thinking Day

"Thinking Day" was held this week by Neighborhood One of District Four, River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, at the Venice Recreation Center.

The annual observance is planned each February when Girl Scouts and Girl Guides around the world learn more about each others customs and lives.

The opening ceremony was conducted by Janet Wilkinson and Margaret Chapman of Brownie Troop 476 and Anna Turner of Junior Troop 436.

Mexico was the country chosen for study this year. The "Cabanana" in Mexico was explained by Venice Junior Troop 436, and two Mexican songs were sung by St. Mary's Junior Troop 46.

A Mexican hat dance was presented by Madison Junior

Troop 3 followed by Venice Cadette Troop 107 giving a travelogue. A Mexican dance was performed by St. Mary's Brownie Troop 392.

As in all festive events in Mexico where children are present, the local scouts enjoyed breaking two "pinatas" by Venice Brownie Troop 476 and Madison Cadette Troop 367 and candy was distributed to all.

Vee Throne and Jeanette Wilkinson coordinated the program.

Speed warnings this week

State Police Supt. Dwight E. Pitman is reminding motorists that the new 55 miles an hour maximum speed limit went into effect at 12:01 a.m. Monday throughout Illinois.

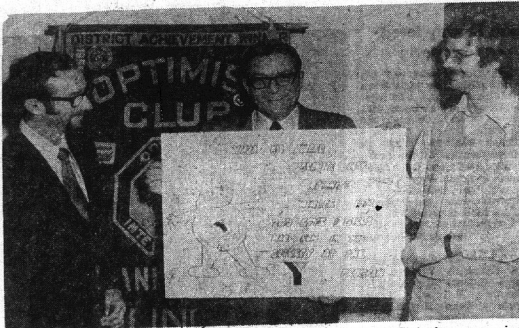

The new lowered speed limit is the maximum allowable speed on all highways and interstate routes within Illinois. Drivers must adhere to lower speeds if they are posted, but in no case is any speed over 55 within the new law, Pitman said.

"In some cases, signs might display a 65 or 70 limit. Drivers will be ticketed even if the sign reads 65 or 70, since the Department of Transportation may not have finished changing all speed limit signs before the deadline," Pitman said.

Under the new energy conservation program, the 55 mph limit will be in effect indefinitely, and motorists ticketed will be issued a citation for a moving violation. Under Illinois law, a person's driving privilege is automatically revoked after three moving violations within a 12-month period.

State police will issue written warnings on violations of the new speed limit from Feb. 25 until 12:01 a.m. March 4. However, any speeding violation in excess of the present limit of 65 or 70 will be cause for an arrest this week.

Ask the Governor

Q. Three months ago my car was struck from behind. The at-fault driver had no insurance and no job. My insurance only covered the other guy and can't afford a lawyer. Why doesn't the state enact legislation to show proof of insurance before driving an automobile? Donald Pye, Zion.

A. I favor that kind of legislation. The situation which you describe is one that could be remedied with a good no-fault automobile insurance bill.

The legislature sent me a misleading bill last fall which I vetoed. I did so because it would not have reduced consumer's insurance premiums, nor would it have reduced legal proceedings. In fact, it was not a true no-fault bill.

The state Department of Insurance has drawn standards for a bill which would insure the public of a good no-fault bill. These include: reducing the cost to the consumer purchasing automobile insurance; providing prompt payment for all economic loss to all parties in accident cases and retaining the right to take the case to court in serious accident cases, such as where there has been loss of life, limb or faculties which affect employment.

The no-fault plan in Massachusetts has reduced average insurance costs by 40 percent; in Florida by 10 percent. Other plans which were supposed to do the same things, however, have increased automobile insurance costs as in Delaware and Oregon. Actuarial experts examining the proposed Illinois bill predicted it would have increased automobile insurance for a two-car family with a teenage driver from $21 to $76 a year. It would have doubled motorcycle insurance.

I believe a good no-fault bill should benefit all drivers by reducing insurance rates. It must reimburse all persons involved in an accident for their medical expenses, wages and services lost. Under current law, at-fault drivers have no recourse for lost wages. A good bill retains the right to sue for non-economic loss only in serious accidents, which would eliminate the small nuisance claims crowding our court rooms. It allows the insured person to collect directly from his own company, without regard to fault, assuring quick compensation. It would provide that no automobile be operated unless the owner has insurance on the vehicle.

I agree that our system for compensating accident victims really needs improvement. The General Assembly should enact a good no-fault bill and I will sign it.

American Iron and Steel Institute reports that steelmakers in this country paid $6,810,328,000 in wages and salaries during the year, compared with $5,840,300,000 in such payments in 1972.

The industry's total employment cost per hour for hourly employees averaged $7.68 for all of 1973—a jump of 69 cents an hour over the previous year. The figures include fringe benefits.

The number of persons engaged in production and marketing of steel also showed a substantial increase during 1973. It averaged 506,600 for the year, compared with an average of 478,400 in 1972.

During December, 315,300 persons were employed in such activities, an increase of about 1,200 from November.

U.S. court ruling favors release of sewer grants

Improved chances for a federal grant to finance construction of the proposed four-township sanitary sewer project by the Madison County Board have resulted from a new court ruling that may cause the release of construction grants, Louis P. Whitsell, member of the County Board and a member of the four-township sewer committee, said last week.

In a prepared statement, Whitsell said: "We have been working continuously to develop a program to install sanitary sewers in the four townships of Nameoki, Chouteau, Vonce and Granite City, even though we encountered set-backs."

"We expected to receive federal and state funding this year, but President Nixon impounded $6 billion in water pollution control funds, which brought our project and many others to a halt."

"I received favorable news that the U.S. Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia has upheld a district court ruling that the President illegally impounded these funds."

"The ruling came as a result of a suit filed by New York City and Detroit asking that they receive their full allotment of sewage funds under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1972. The suit has been certified as a class action, which means that this ruling applies to all areas affected by the impoundment."

"Although the Federal Water Pollution Control Act authorized $11 billion to be allocated in fiscal 1973 and 1974, the President directed the Environmental Protection Agency to impound $6 billion."

"The appeals court specified that the money must be allocated to the states for their water pollution control projects, which includes our Madison County project."

"President Nixon has said that impoundment of funds is necessary to fight inflation. As a result of his action, more than 60 law suits have been filed, seeking to release the funds approved by Congress, but withheld by the President. 'It seems to me that this administration has held that anything for the people is inflationary and anything for big business and foreign countries is necessary. We are grateful that the courts have rejected this concept and we have faith to look forward to correcting one of the biggest problems in the world right here in our townships."

Property tax freeze petitions

Property tax freeze petitions are out.

The petitions seek the signatures of Illinoisans who want to place on a statewide referendum ballot the question of whether the General Assembly should freeze property taxes. In all, 650,000 signatures will be needed to get the question on the ballot for the Nov. 5 general election.

The petition drive has been outlined by House Speaker Rep. W. Robert Blair, R-Park Forest and is to be pushed in the spring session in the House by Republicans.

The petitions are being collected by Rep. C. L. McCormick, R-Vienna.

McCormick has sponsored legislation for the past several sessions, designed to freeze property taxes. He has been successful in getting the measure through the House.

It is now in the Senate, where the legislation, along with other tax-related bills, is being studied by a subcommittee headed by Sen. Terrell Clarke, R-Western Springs.

The petitions, which seek the signatures of qualified voters, are now being sent out.

Blair gave out some of the petitions in the Capitol building.

The petitions also contain a model or sample of the legislation which the General Assembly would be asked to approve. Property taxes would be frozen for 1975 and 1976.

When he first introduced the legislation, McCormick said, he did so because—by freezing rates for two years—local governments might be able to give taxpayers some indication of where spending levels would be going. It would also give the local-level governmental units a chance to look at their own lists of priorities.

Clarke's study group is to report to the General Assembly, possibly early this spring, on its findings.

The petition drive would be above and beyond the present legislation in the Senate. If the petition drive is successful, the question will go on the fall ballot.

Communications key to drugs

The one common underlying characteristic in all the drug problems I work with is a lack of effective communication within the home," Gregory Schlegel, drug counselor on the Co-ordinated Youth staff, told the Monday evening meeting of the Granite City Kiwanis Club at Charlie's restaurant.

Schlegel told the Kiwanians that the number of people he is seeing now, indicates to him the drug problem in the area is as bad as it was a couple of years ago.

Schlegel, a Navy veteran, worked in a drug counseling center in Pearl Harbor before joining the local youth agency. He is a senior at SIUE.

At the club's meeting, the Kiwanians voted to continue the sponsor a boys baseball team in the Granite City Park District program. Frank Pinkston will be the team manager.

Next Curtains Up trip is March 24

Church Women's 'World Day of Prayer'

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
Church Women United in the Quad-City area will celebrate "World Day of Prayer" at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

The annual observance unites Church Women United groups in thousands of local communities from every state in the country to pray for "peace building" program with women in 168 lands. The 1974 celebration is the 88th World Day of Prayer.

Coordinating the local observance is Mrs. Harold (Elizabeth Ann) Briggs, a teacher at Parkview Grade School and president of the United Methodist Women of Niedringhaus Church.

Mrs. Briggs, who teaches kindergarten pupils, is active in the PTA program in addition to her work in the United Methodist Women. Her husband is superintendent of Madison County Educational Service Region.

She is the mother of two sons, Gene, 20, a junior at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Tim, 14, a freshman at Granite City High School North.

"World Day of Prayer" will be based this year on the theme—"Make Us Builders of Peace."

The worship materials have been prepared by the women of Japan, who, having experienced the cost of World War II, have worked very hard in succeeding years in the peace movement in their own country.

The worldwide program began in 1887 with a small group of women who firmly believed that the mission work for which they were responsible needed their support in prayer as much as in giving. Mrs. Joan Roberts, president of the Quad-City Church Women United, said.

Today, the yearly event on the first Friday of March has developed into a truly ecumenical and international celebration and is significant in that its roots are based in thousands of local communities,

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

MRS. HAROLD BRIGGS
World Day chairman

The CWU officer noted, "World Day of Prayer" is under the auspices of an International Committee composed of a liaison officer from each country that has a national committee.

Church Women United is the appointed administrator of the International Committee's work, which has designated Church Women United as the official sponsor of "World Day of Prayer" in the United States, Mrs. Briggs explained.

The International Committee chooses the theme and appoints a group of women from a different part of the world each year to write the worship materials relevant to the emphasis, the local chairman said.

In conjunction with the selection of Japan as the originator of the 1974 worship program, a group of women from many areas of the United States has traveled to Asia this year to explore the question of justice and peace with women from six Asian countries.

Together, these women will climax their efforts tomorrow as they worship in Japan with the Japanese women on "World Day of Prayer." Arranged under the auspices of Church Women United, the program is called Christian Catechisms.

The worship service as prepared by the designated country is sent to correspondents in about 168 countries and islands who arrange for its adaptation and translation into their own languages and dialects, Mrs. Briggs advised.

As tomorrow dawns in the Pacific Islands, communities will be linked by the same prayers for "peace building" offered by people in their own languages from country to country until the day closes on Samoa Island off the west coast of Alaska.

"World Day of Prayer" in the United States is the most widely observed ecumenical celebration sponsored by Church Women United.

Protestant, Orthodox and Roman Catholic women, motivated by their unity in Christ, this year will mobilize around their intentions to be "builders of peace" by channeling their energies into effective acts of reconciliation in their individual communities, Mrs. Roberts said.

The occasion also permits participation in a nationwide offering which goes into a fund called Intercontinental Mission—the process by which Church Women United fulfills its goals of justice and peace through approved agencies.

The primary focus this year is a contribution to an international fund for rehabilitation and reconciliation to which Christians women in other countries contribute, it was announced.

A team of Asian women recently visited war-torn nations in Southeast Asia to discover the needs from the women war victims themselves.

Other funds donated will enable a team of women in the Caribbean area to work in aiding women in that locale to improve their social, economic and religious life.

Contributions from the same fund will assist in rebuilding a training center where church women in Eastern Nigeria are working on rehabilitation tasks as a result of the Biafra-Nigeria conflict, it was explained.

Through the years, grants have been made to continuing efforts carried forward on an interdenominational basis.

Projects include literature for women and children overseas; Christian colleges for women in Asia; migrant farmworker ministries; programs of "A Christian Ministry in the National Parks"; and special efforts in urban ministries among women—development of new careers for women, pilot projects in health delivery services, adult basic education and other CWU sponsored programs.

Additional grants have been made to nutrition education in Thailand and India, and assistance to a cross-racial community center in Japan.

New officers of the Quad-City Church Women United were installed with Mrs. Roberts as the annual business assembly last week. They are: Mrs. Virginia Rickert, vice-president; Mrs. Margaret Pennell, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Todd, treasurer.

The event was held at the Madison United Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Mary Ellen Rupp presiding. Thirty-three women representing 14 local churches attended the assembly.

The Rev. Frank Christ, pastor of the local church, offered the devotion and a talk was given by Miss Mickey Easley, recreational director for the Colonial Haven Nursing Home.

Chairmen were named for the various local Church Women United projects. They include: Mrs. Delores Vogeler, CROP—Church World Service; Mrs. Vivian Cherry, Friends in Learning; Mrs. Joyce Schrader, Community Close; Mrs. Ellen Ehler, Layettes for Mothers; Mrs. Gail Gargac, Blood Donor Program; Mrs. Pat McKee, mailing secretary;

Mrs. Jeanne Beatty, Social Concerns; and Mrs. Nan Henderson, Fellowship of the Least Coin.

Mrs. Bea Rittenhouse, Mrs. Mary Blankenship and Mrs. Rupp were chosen to serve on the nominating committee.

All women of the Quad-City area are invited to attend Friday's "World Day of Prayer" program, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Briggs said.

Employment practices reviewed for BPW

Fair employment practices, day care centers and ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment were topics explored at the 9th annual legislation conference of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club held at the Ramada Inn, Springfield.

About 375 BPW members registered for the conference, including 12 members of the Granite City BPW Club, Mrs. Lil Marchal, president, Mrs.

Ann Graklanoff, Miss Annellen Smith, Mrs. Rosemary Baden, Mrs. Sylvia Wright, Mrs. Gerry Brandley, Mrs. Marionrose Lambert, Mrs. Gladys Newman, Mrs. Rebecca State, Mrs. Verna Lengyel, Mrs. Pauline Weir and Mrs. Edna Kolbrecher, legislation chairman for the local group.

Rap sessions focusing on consumer awareness, community involvement, individual development and crime prevention preceded the general program.

Speaking to the issue of day care centers, State Rep. Michael F. McClain, (D), 48th District, reviewed the need for centers in Illinois.

He said the future for such programs "looks grim," noting the lack of funds in the federal budget. He said the state is not prepared to subsidize the federal grant to establish and maintain the program.

McClain suggested BPW members prepare a resolution urging state representatives to become more aware of the need for a day care center program.

Mrs. Eleanor P. Peterson, the first woman named chairperson of the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission, explained the purpose and functions of the commission.

She highlighted her remarks with specific cases which have been resolved by the commission in instances where job discrimination against women was proven.

She said women who believe they have been discriminated against because of their sex should write immediately to the Fair Employment Practices Commission describing the circumstances.

Mrs. Peterson was appointed to the state regulatory group by former Gov. Richard Ogilvie and later named chairperson by Gov. Daniel Walker.

"Let's Get Busy" was the topic of Miss Jean McCarrey, National BPW president, who reviewed the status of the Equal Rights Amendment bill, noting that only five states must ratify the ERA bill prior to its becoming law.

Miss McCarrey said the primary objective of national, state and local BPW organizations is ERA passage and said the Illinois Federation has contributed a total of $9,519 toward this end.

At the present time, the national officer said, overall BPW membership is 3,000 more than at the same period last year.

Members of the Springfield BPW Club suggested all delegates write to their legislators, get involved in other activities and "talk up" ERA, including the political scene, and make personal visits to legislators to express their views on ERA ratification.

A question and answer period was highlighted with a panel discussion by state legislators—Addine Jay Geo-Karis, 31st District; Eugene S. Charnard, 48th District; Giddy Dyer, 41st District and Susan Catania, 22nd District.

Closing remarks were offered by Miss Ann Poag, Illinois State legislation chairman, and a skit—"How (Not) to Lobby"—was performed by the Springfield Club.

GC Hair Fashion Committee elects

The Hair Fashion Committee of Elite Hairdressers Affiliate 33 met Monday evening at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture and elected Mrs. Judy Broshaw to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. The group also planned an all day workshop for March 17.

Other officers who will serve this year include: Betty Smith secretary; Marcelle Tucker, treasurer; Brenda Cati, styles director; and Mrs. Tucker, assistant styles director.

Tino Constantino of the St. Louis stylist will be the workshop stylist and instructor. He has won many awards in hair styling, served as chairman of the St. Louis Hair Fashion Committee and assistant styles director of the Missouri Hair Fashion Committee.

The program will be open to affiliate members and all licensed beauticians, following a morning workshop for committee members only. The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Fees of $5 for non-members and $25 for students will be charged.

Further information may be obtained by calling 876-5432, Mrs. Broshaw said.
